American Association of State Troopers
Statement of Mission and Purpose

The American Association of State Troopers, Inc. (AAST) is a national fraternal organization composed of active and retired state troopers and state police officers ("troopers"). Membership in AAST is voluntary; the choice to participate is made on an individual basis.

The Association's purpose specifically include development of strong bonds of nationwide trooper camaraderie, providing benefits for all troopers as well as their families, promotion of processional law enforcement training and educational opportunities, securing financial support to subsidize scholarship stipends for troopers' dependents, and involvement in public safety and consumer information campaigns.
