DISABLED POLICE OFFICERS COUNSELING CENTER, INC.
Purpose Statement/Program Services

Purpose

Disabled Police Officers Counseling Center is a non-profit, charitable organization whose primary purpose is to provide educational and counseling programs to assist disabled police officers, and to educate the public on the needs and abilities of disabled police officers.

Program Services

- Counseling — To assist disabled police officers in coping with their disabilities
- Education — To educate the public on the needs of disabled police officers
- Seminars — Conducted to provide a forum to assist disabled police officers
- Research — To study the underlying causes that lead to the high suicide rate of police officers. Conducting a nationwide research project to attempt to determine the number of disabled officers (using a reliable sampling from various police agencies) there are in the U.S.
