CONSTITUTION

Texas State Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police

Established September 25, 1985

Preamble

The Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) in Texas is an organization of law enforcement officers, open to all ranks and agencies, who are full-time law enforcement officers of the state. The purpose of the FOP in Texas is to promote loyalty and allegiance between law enforcement members as well as between officer and the agency and between officer and the public. Further, FOP strives to improve member status in their profession and to improve the rights and economic status of our members as viable members of the community. Finally, the Fraternal Order of Police dedicates its resources to the improvement of community affairs and to the assistance of governing agencies to improve the priority of law enforcement in the scheme of public affairs, as well as supporting the goals and purposes of the Grand Lodge Fraternal Order of Police.
