To cultivate friendship and fellowship among its members.

How Contributions will be used:

Proceeds from the IUPA fund raising efforts are deposited in our general treasury to assist in carrying out the core activities of the overall union effort that includes providing labor relations training, legal counsel. Contract negotiation support, and various professional seminars such as community policing programs, drug interdiction, and other traditional law enforcement subjects. In addition, funds collected help amortize the cost of publishing the IUPA's Police Union and The Law, a source of useful and reliable information on all of the issues which police organization must deal; Police Union News, a monthly publication covering technical and professional articles of interest to the professional law enforcement officer; and the IUPA Benfits Program booklet for the use of members.
