Re: Request for Case #1997-46584

Dear Mr. Alicie:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 308851.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined that your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim that the orange highlighted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the orange highlighted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold most of the orange highlighted information. However, you must release basic information under section 552.108(c), including the complainant's identification and description. You also claim that the pink highlighted information is excepted from public disclosure pursuant to section 552.130 of the Government Code. We agree you must withhold the pink highlighted information in accordance with section 552.130. Lastly, you may withhold the social security numbers highlighted in green under section 552.147 of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
