

CHILD SUPPORT EVADER MARCUS SPANIHEL JR.

by Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott

ATTORNEY GENERAL GREG ABBOTT NEEDS

your help locating Child Support Evader Marcus Spanihel Jr., one of the Most Wanted Child Support Evaders in Texas. Spanihel, who was added to the Child Support Evader's list in April 2008, owes $56,258 for the care of one 17-year-old son living with his mother in a small town outside of Brenham.

In August 1993, Spanihel was ordered to pay $480 a month in child support. Spanihel, who had the ability to make his payments, did not follow the judge's order to support his son financially.

By 2005, he owed more than $20,000 in unpaid child support. After being given many chances to pay what he owed, a Lee County judge issued a warrant for Spanihel's arrest.

Marcus Spanihel has not made a single child support payment in more than five years. By refusing to provide the financial resources his son needs, Spanihel has turned his back on him and violated the law. A combination of missed payments and interest that accrues on unpaid child support adds up to more than $56,000 in unpaid child support Spanihel now owes.

Investigators from the Attorney General's office have searched the state for Spanihel, who may be living in Hallettsville, a small town in Lavaca County. He may be working for cash to avoid garnishment of wages to pay child support. Contact the Attorney General's Office at (866) EVADERS (382-3377) to report information that may lead to the arrest of Marcus Spanihel Jr.

Texas law requires the Office of the Attorney General to publicly identify certain parents who are delinquent in the payment of child support. The Child Support Evaders are selected because they have the ability to take responsibility for their children but refuse to do so. Incarceration is the only option for parents who repeatedly ignore court orders to pay child support. The Attorney General's Office helps parents who lack the ability to pay child support by referring them to job training and employment services.
