

CHILD SUPPORT EVADER GUADALUPE ACEVES

by Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott

ATTORNEY GENERAL GREG ABBOTT NEEDS

your help locating Child Support Evader Guadalupe Aceves, one of the Most Wanted Child Support Evaders in Texas. Aceves, who was added to the Child Support

Evader's list in April 2008, owes $78,600 for the care of three children from the Dallas area.

In 1998 when the children's parents divorced, Aceves was ordered to pay $410 a month in child support. Aceves, who had the ability to make his payments, did not follow the court's order to support his children financially.

Aceves was given many opportunities to honor his child support obligation without going to jail. Criminal charges were pursued after efforts to enforce the civil court order did not succeed. In 2001, a Dallas County grand jury indicted Aceves for criminal nonsupport and an arrest warrant was issued.

Aceves has not made a single payment in more than 10 years. By refusing to provide the financial resources his children need, Aceves has turned his back on them and violated the law. A combination of missed payments and interest that accrues on unpaid child support adds up to more than $78,000 in unpaid child support Aceves now owes.

Investigators from the Attorney General's Office have searched the state for Aceves. He may be living in the Dallas area. He may be working for cash or self-employed to avoid garnishment of wages to pay child support. Contact the Attorney General's Office at (866) EVADERS (382-3377) to report information that may lead to the arrest of Guadalupe Aceves.

Texas law requires the Office of the Attorney General to publicly identify certain parents who are delinquent in the payment of child support. The Child Support Evaders are selected because they have the ability to take responsibility for their children but refuse to do so. Incarceration is the only option for parents who repeatedly ignore court orders to pay child support. The Attorney General's Office helps parents who lack the ability to pay child support by referring them to job training and employment services.
