

CHILD SUPPORT EVADER JOHN LOWRY

by Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott

ATTORNEY GENERAL GREG ABBOTT NEEDS

your help locating Child Support Evader John Lowry, one of the Most Wanted Child Support Evaders in Texas. Lowry, who was added to the Child Support Evader's list in December 2005, owes $85,213 for the care of two daughters, ages 16 and 17; and a son, age 13.

The parents divorced in 2002 and Lowry was ordered to pay $657 per month in child support. Lowry, who had the ability to make his payments, did not follow the court's order to support his children financially.

As a result of his noncompliance, the Office of the Attorney General filed a legal action to compel Lowry's adherence to the order. The enforcement hearing was set for October 2003, and an arrest warrant was issued after Lowry, who received proper notice, failed to appear.

Lowry has never followed the terms of his child support order. His last partial payment of $83 was made more than nine years ago. By refusing to provide the financial resources his son and daughters need, Lowry has turned his back on his children and violated the law. A combination of missed payments and interest that accrues on unpaid child support adds up to more than $85,000 in unpaid child support Lowry now owes.

Investigators from the Attorney General's office have searched the state for Lowry, whose last known address was in San Antonio. He may be working for cash to avoid garnishment of wages to pay child support. Contact the Attorney General's Office at (866) EVADERS (382-3377) to report information that may lead to the arrest of John Lowry.

Texas law requires the Office of the Attorney General to publicly identify certain parents who are delinquent in the payment of child support. The Child Support Evaders are selected because they have the ability to take responsibility for their children but refuse to do so. Incarceration is the only option for parents who repeatedly ignore court orders to pay child support. The Attorney General's Office helps parents who lack the ability to pay child support by referring them to job training and employment services.
