DETAILS OF INCIDENT

Complainant came to the police station alleging the suspect destroyed the complainant's golf cart and golf clubs. The complainant had invited the suspect out to play a round of golf at the Shield County Country Club Golf Course. After bogeying holes 3 and 4, and hitting his ball into the sand trap on the fifth hole, the suspect became enraged. The suspect then started smashing the complainant's golf cart with the complainant's golf clubs. Despite the complainant's pleas to calm down, the suspect continued to destroy the complainant's property. Once all of the complainant's golf clubs were destroyed, the suspect stormed off the green while screaming "Hulk Smash!"

ACTION TAKEN

The suspect was found in his home, passed out and wearing only shredded purple pants. The suspect claimed he had not destroyed the complainant's property, and asserted "The Other Guy" was responsible for the damage. The suspect was arrested.

DETAILS OF INCIDENT

Complainant, principal of Hero Academy, states he was standing in the halls, observing students move from class to class, when he heard Parker tell Osborn, "I need to pick up Mary Jane again tonight." The complainant stated he knew "Mary Jane" slang for marijuana. The complainant then approached the boys and asked if they were talking about drugs. Parker told the complainant he had just been saying he needed to pick up his girlfriend that night. The complainant then asked the boys if they were being truthful or if they had any drugs on them. The two boys admitted to possessing marijuana and turned it over to the complainant.

ACTION TAKEN

Officer Rogers responded to the Hero Academy, took custody of the confiscated marijuana, and transported Parker and Osborn to the police station.
