TITLE 11. ORGANIZED CRIME
 CLASSIFICATION AND PUNISHMENT
 TEXAS PENAL CODE

Classification	Offense
First Degree Felony	Directing Activities of a Gang (if a person knowingly finances, directs, or supervises the commission of, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of the following listed offenses by members of a criminal street gang:            A 3g offense;            A felony involving a deadly weapon; or            Certain first degree drug offenses)            [Tex. Penal Code Ann § 71.023] Minimum punishment is increased to 25 years.            [Tex. Penal Code Ann § 71.023(b)]
Second Degree Felony	Coercing, Soliciting, or Inducing Gang Membership (subsequent offense)            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.022(a), (a-1), (c)]
Third Degree Felony	Coercing, Soliciting, or Inducing Gang Membership (requires the commission of a Class A misdemeanor or higher offense as a condition of gang membership, or by causing bodily injury to the child or a member of the child’s family, or threatening to cause bodily injury to the child or a member of the child’s family)            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. § 71.022(a), (a-1), (b)]
Class A Misdemeanor	Violation of Court Order Enjoining Organized Criminal Activity            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. § 71.021]

Classification	Offense
Engaging in Organized Criminal Activity	Punishment for Engaging in Organized Criminal Activity is based upon the most serious offense committed [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.02(a), (b)] If most serious offense committed is an Aggravated Sexual Assault, the offender is over 18 and the victim is:            Younger than 6;            Younger than 14 and the offensive involved penetration of the sexual organ or anus; or            Younger than 17 and suffered serious bodily injury or death, then punishment is life without parole.            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.02(a), (b)(1)] Minimum punishment increased from 5 to 30 years if offense is continuous smuggling of persons that results in sexual assault or serious bodily injury to the victim            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. 71.02(a), (b)(2)] Minimum punishment increased from 5 years to 15 years if highest degree offense is a first degree felony            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.02(a), (b)(3)]
Enhancement	Enhances certain engaging in organized criminal activity offenses if person is 17 or older and offense is committed in a gang-free zone except that felonies of the first degree remain the same.            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.028]
Committing an offense	Punishment for offenses committed under §71.02 is one category higher than the most serious offense committed, except that felonies of the first degree have an increased minimum punishment.            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. § 71.02(b)(2)]
Conspiring to commit an offense	Punishment for offenses conspired to be committed under §71.02 is of the same degree as the most serious offense the actor conspired to commit.            [Tex. Penal Code Ann. §71.02(c), (d)]

TITLE 3. PROGRESSIVE SANCTIONS MODEL
FAMILY CODE

LEVEL ONE

[Tex. Family Code §59.004]

Triggers for Level One Sanctions:

- Conduct Indicating a Need for Supervision (CINS), other than conduct described in §51.03 (b)(5) (conduct violating a school district’s written code of conduct for which a child has been expelled) or a Class A or Class B misdemeanor
- Child referred to a juvenile probation department under §53.012 of the Juvenile Justice Code, where the child is not adjudicated

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may:

- Require that the child attend counseling for his or her conduct
- Inform child of possible sanctions for future offenses
- Inform parent of responsibility to impose restrictions on child
- Provide child and family with information on obtaining needed social services
- Require child or parents to participate in early youth intervention services (STAR - Services To At-Risk Youth), if the program is available
- Refer child to a community-based citizen intervention program approved by the juvenile court (for example: a juvenile court mentoring program that uses citizen volunteers)
- Release child to parent or guardian
- Require child to attend and successfully complete a sexting education program

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the probation department after provisions are met.

LEVEL TWO

[Tex. Family Code §59.005]

Triggers for Level Two Sanctions:

- Conduct Indicating a Need for Supervision (CINS) under §51.03(b)(5), a Class A or B misdemeanor, other than a misdemeanor involving the use or possession of a firearm, or delinquent conduct under §51.03(a)(2)
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level one
- Deferred prosecution under §53.03 of the Juvenile Justice Code
- Expulsion from an alternative education program (AEP) for serious misbehavior under §37.007(c) of the Education Code

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may:

- Place child on deferred prosecution for not less than three or more than six months

- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to offense and child's ability
- Require parent or guardian to identify restrictions they will impose on child's activities and behavior
- Provide child and family with information on obtaining needed social services
- Inform child of possible sanctions for future offenses
- Require child or parents to participate in early youth intervention services (STAR - Services to At-Risk Youth), if such a program is available
- Refer child to community-based citizen intervention program approved by the juvenile court (for example: a juvenile court mentoring program that uses citizen volunteers)
- Impose additional conditions of probation, if appropriate

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the probation department on the date the sanctions are met or on child's 18th birthday, whichever is earlier.

LEVEL THREE

[Tex. Family Code §59.006]

Triggers for Level Three Sanctions:

- Misdemeanor involving the use or possession of a firearm
- State Jail Felony
- Third Degree Felony
- Two or more subsequent offenses for conduct that was a violation of the penal laws and was classified at a lower level than a previous offense (for example: two subsequent offenses punishable under sanction level one, but previous offense was for sanction level two)
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level two

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may:

- Order probation for not less than six or more than 12 months
- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to offense and child's ability
- Impose specific restrictions on child's activities and requirements for child's behavior
- Require child's activities and behavior to be closely monitored by a probation officer
- Require child's and/or parents' participation in programs or services designated by the court or probation officer
- Impose additional conditions of probation, if appropriate

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the probation department on the date the sanctions are met or on child's 18th birthday, whichever is earlier.

LEVEL FOUR

[Tex. Family Code §59.007]

Trigger for Level Four Sanctions:

- Second Degree Felony
- Two or more subsequent offenses for conduct that was a violation of the penal laws and was classified at a lower level than a previous offense (for example: two subsequent offenses punishable under sanction level one or two, but previous offense was for sanction level three)
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level three

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may:

- Require no less than three or more than 12 months in an intensive services probation program as a condition of probation, emphasizing frequent contact and reporting with a probation officer, discipline, intensive supervision services, social responsibility and productive work
- After release from program, continue child on probation supervision
- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to the offense and child's ability
- Place highly structured restrictions on child's activities and requirements for child's behavior
- Require child to be closely monitored by a probation officer
- Require child's and/or parents' participation in programs or services, as needed
- Impose additional conditions of probation, if appropriate

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the probation department on the date the sanctions are met or on child's 18th birthday, whichever is earlier.

LEVEL FIVE

[Tex. Family Code §59.008]

Trigger for Level Five Sanctions:

- First Degree Felony, other than a felony involving the use of a deadly weapon or causing serious bodily injury
- Two or more subsequent offenses for conduct that was a violation of the penal laws and was classified at a lower level than a previous offense (for example: two subsequent offenses punishable under sanction level one, two or three, but previous offense was for sanction level four)
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level four

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may:

- Require six to 12 months in a post-adjudication secure correctional facility
- After release, continue child on probationary supervision
- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to the offense and child's ability
- Place highly structured restrictions on child's activities and requirements for child's behavior
- Require child to be closely monitored by a probation officer
- Require child's and/or parents' participation in programs or services, as needed
- Impose additional sanctions, if appropriate

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the probation department on the date the sanctions are met or on child's 18th birthday, whichever is earlier.

LEVEL SIX

[Tex. Family Code §59.009]

Triggers for Level Six Sanctions:

- First Degree Felony involving the use of a deadly weapon or causing serious bodily injury
- Aggravated Controlled Substance Felony
- Capital Felony
- Two or more subsequent offenses for conduct that was a violation of the penal laws and classified at a lower level than a previous offense (for example: two subsequent offenses punishable under sanction level one, two, three or four, but previous offense was for sanction level five)
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level five, unless the child's previously assigned sanction level is five and the child has not been adjudicated for delinquent conduct

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may commit child to the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD), where the commission may impose the following:

- Require nine to 24 months in a highly structured residential program where the commission may extend the placement if appropriate (period may be extended if commission documents reason for extension)
- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to the offense and child's ability
- Require child's and/or parents' participation in programs or services, as needed
- Impose additional sanctions, if appropriate

On release, the Texas Juvenile Justice Department's parole program may:

- Require parole with highly structured restrictions on child's activities and requirements for child's behavior
- Impose not less than six months of parole supervision
- Impose other parole supervision conditions, if appropriate

Completion:

Child is discharged from the custody of the commission on the date the sanctions are met or on child's 19th birthday, whichever is earlier.

LEVEL SEVEN

[Tex. Family Code §59.010]

Triggers for Level Seven Sanctions:

- First Degree Felony involving the use of a deadly weapon or causing serious bodily injury
- Aggravated Controlled Substance Felony
- Capital felony
- Subsequent offense for conduct that was a violation of a penal law and was punishable under sanction level six, but only if the petition has been approved by a grand jury (determinate sentencing petition under §53.045 of the Family Code)

Recommended Sanctions:

The juvenile court may certify the child and transfer the case to adult criminal court or commit the child to the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD), where the commission may impose the following:

- Require 12 months to 10 years in a highly structured residential program (period may be extended if commission documents reason for extension)
- Require child to make restitution to victim or perform community service restitution appropriate to the offense and child's ability
- Require child's and/or parents' participation in programs or services, as needed
- Impose additional sanctions, if appropriate

On release from supervision, the commission's parole program may:

- Require parole with highly structured restrictions on child's activities and requirements for child's behavior
- Impose parole supervision for not less than 12 months
- Impose other parole supervision conditions, if appropriate

Completion:

No completion restrictions are specified in the statute.
