

AUTHORITY

3. This action is brought by Attorney General Greg Abbott, through his Consumer Protection Division, in the name of the STATE OF TEXAS and in the public interest pursuant to the authority granted by §17.47 of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act, TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE ANN. §§17.41, et seq., (West 2011)(“DTPA”) upon the ground that Defendant has engaged in false, deceptive and misleading acts and practices in the course of trade and commerce as defined in, and declared unlawful by, §§17.46(a) and (b) of the DTPA. In enforcement suits filed pursuant to Section 17.47 of the DTPA, the Attorney General is further authorized to seek civil penalties, redress for consumers and injunctive relief. This enforcement action is further brought by Attorney General Greg Abbott, through his Consumer Protection Division, in the name of the State and in the public interest, for violations involving the legal representation of others and the accreditation of representatives by the United States Board of Immigration Appeals (hereinafter, “BIA”). This enforcement action is further brought by Attorney General Greg Abbott, through his Consumer Protection Division, in the name of the State and in the public interest, pursuant to the State Bar Act, TEX. GOV’T CODE ANN. §§81.001, et seq. (West 2005)(hereinafter, “SBA”).

PARTY DEFENDANT

4. Defendant MARIA DURIA CHAVELAS is an individual residing in El Paso County, Texas, is the owner of INTERNATIONAL LEGAL SERVICES-ABOGADOS, a sole proprietorship, and may be served with process by serving her attorney of record, Jim Darnell, 310 N. Mesa St., Suite 212, El Paso, Texas 79901.

VENUE

5. Venue of this action lies in El Paso County on the basis of §17.47(b) of the DTPA because Defendant has her principal place of business and has done business in El Paso County.

PUBLIC INTEREST

6. Because Plaintiff STATE OF TEXAS has reason to believe that Defendant has engaged in, and will continue to engage in, the unlawful practices set forth below, Plaintiff STATE OF TEXAS has reason to believe Defendant has caused and will cause adverse effects to legitimate business enterprises which lawfully conduct trade and commerce in this State and further, will cause damage to the STATE OF TEXAS and to persons from whom monies or properties are unlawfully acquired by Defendant. Therefore, the Consumer Protection Division of the office of the Attorney General of the State of Texas believes and is of the opinion that these proceedings are in the public interest.

TRADE AND COMMERCE

7. Defendant has, at all times described below, engaged in conduct which constitutes "trade" and "commerce" as those terms are defined by § 17.45(6) of the DTPA.

ACTS OF AGENTS

8. Whenever in this Petition it is alleged that Defendant did any act, it is meant that:
- a. Defendant performed or participated in the act, or
  - b. Defendant's officers, agents, or employees performed or participated in the act on behalf of and under the authority of Defendant.

NOTICE BEFORE SUIT

9. Pursuant to § 17.47(a) of the DTPA, contact has been made with Defendant MARIA DURIA CHAVELAS to inform Defendant in general of the unlawful conduct alleged herein.

NATURE OF DEFENDANT'S CONDUCT

10. Defendant operates a business in El Paso County, Texas that purports to provide authorized legal services, and specifically immigration advice and services, to persons who purchase her services, when she is not authorized to provide such services.

SPECIFIC FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. Defendant is engaging in and has engaged in the business of providing immigration services. Defendant solicits and charges those persons who seek and/or purchase her services (hereafter "customers"). Defendant has solicited customers by representing that she has the skill or knowledge and the certification necessary to handle immigration matters.

12. Defendant's customers are persons who sought to obtain legal benefits, including but not limited to, change in immigration status, other immigration matters and family law matters.

The legal services rendered by Defendant include the following activities:

- a. interviewing and advising customers as to what immigration documents would need to be filed;
- b. selecting and preparing immigration forms or other immigration matters on behalf of customers requiring a careful determination of legal consequences;
- c. gathering the supporting documentation for customer's application;
- d. exercising discretion and/or analysis in selecting and preparing legal documents for immigration; and
- e. giving advice and rendering services requiring the use of legal skill or knowledge.

13. Defendant is not presently, nor ever has been, an attorney at law duly licensed by the State of Texas to engage in acts, practices and/or conduct which constitute the practice of law;

however, Defendant claims to be a licensed attorney in Mexico. Even assuming that is true, 8 CFR §292.1(a)(6) provides that an attorney “who is licensed to practice law and is in good standing in a court of general jurisdiction of the country in which he or she resides and who is engaged in such practice, may represent parties in matters before DHS, provided that he or she represents persons only in matters outside the geographical confines of the United States as defined in section 101(a)(38) of the Act, and that the DHS official before whom he or she wishes to appear allows such representation as a matter of discretion.” (emphasis in the original)

14. In certain circumstances, the U.S. immigration laws permit a “representative” to assist undocumented immigrants in their cases. However, Defendant is not qualified by the Bureau of Citizenship & Immigration Services under 8 C.F.R. §292.1 to represent consumers because she is not an attorney, law student or accredited person, she is receiving remuneration, she has no pre-existing relationship or connection with the person entitled to the representation, and she failed to obtain permission from the immigration officials to act as the representative of said consumers.

15. Defendant does not possess, and has not at all relevant times possessed, the certification, license, or other qualifications necessary to perform such services.

VIOLATION OF TITLE 8 CFR PART 292

16. Federal law provides that undocumented immigrants may be represented by either a licensed attorney, an appropriately supervised law student or a person accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA), who may charge or accept a fee for representing them in immigration proceedings. §292.3, Title 8, Part 292, Code of Federal Regulations (hereinafter, “CFR”)<sup>1</sup>. Engaging in such business without a license as an attorney or accreditation by the BIA is a violation of the DTPA.

17. Defendant, as alleged and detailed above, has violated and will continue to violate 8 C.F.R. §292.1 by falsely claiming that she has the authority to represent others before the DHS and its immigration officers.<sup>2</sup>

18. Defendant, as alleged and detailed above, is not and at all relevant time has not been, affiliated with any organization recognized by the BIA as providers of legal services. Thus, Defendant is in violation of section 292.2(d) of Title 8, Part 292, of the CFR because she is not accredited by the BIA as a representative of any such organizations.

19. Defendant, as alleged and detailed above, has violated and will continue to violate section 292.4 of Title 8, Part 292, of the CFR by falsely claiming that she is authorized to appear as a representative of others.

Accredited representatives should be careful to use the most current version of the Form EOIR-28, which is available on the Executive Office for Immigration Review website at www.usdoj.gov/eoir. (a) Qualifying Organizations, - The Board of Immigration Appeals officially recognizes certain nonprofit religious, charitable, social service and or similar organization as legal service providers. See 8 C.F.R. §1292.2(a), Chapter 2 2(b) (Legal Service Providers) To be recognized by the Board, an organization must affirmatively apply for that recognition. Such an organization must establish to the satisfaction of the Board that its fees are only nominal, that it does not assess excessive membership dues for persons given assistance, and that it has at its disposal adequate knowledge, information and experience in Immigration law and procedure. The qualifications and procedures for organizations seeking Board recognition are set forth in the regulations at 8 C.F.R. §1292.2(a) and (b). Questions regarding recognition may be directed to the Executive Office for Immigration Review, Office of the General Counsel. See Appendix B (EOIR Directory) (b) Qualifying representatives. The Board of Immigration Appeals accredits persons of good moral character as representatives of qualifying organizations. See 8 C.F.R. § 1292.2(d) Representatives of the recognized organizations are not automatically accredited by the Board. Rather, the recognized organization must affirmatively apply for accreditation on each representative's behalf. See 8 C.F.R. §1292.2(d). No individual may apply on his or her own behalf. Accreditation is not transferrable from one representative to another, and no individual retains accreditation upon his or her separation from the recognized organization. Section 2.4 Accredited Representatives, Immigration Court Practice Manual. www.usdoj.gov/eoir.

<sup>2</sup> Section 292 of Title 8 provides identical regulations for who may appear before the Executive Office of Immigration Appeals.
