Beijing 2008 - Terms and Conditions of Ticket Sales and Use

This is the complete version of the "Beijing 2008 - Terms and Conditions of Ticket Sales and Use" (hereinafter "Terms and Conditions"). This complete version is available on the official ticketing website of the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games at <http://tickets.beijing2008.cn>, at all venue box offices and in the "Spectator Guide for the Olympic Games". The terms and conditions on the back of the Ticket constitute the simplified version of these Terms and Conditions. Please read this complete version carefully. Anyone who purchases, holds or uses a Ticket shall be deemed as having read, understood and accepted all Terms and Conditions.

1. Definitions

- 1.1 Games means the Games of the XXIX Olympiad unless otherwise provided.
- 1.2 BOCOG means Beijing Organizing Committee for the Games of the XXIX Olympiad, including its officers, managers, employees, agents, assignees and volunteers.
- 1.3 Event means any competition of the Games for which Tickets are sold by BOCOG or third parties authorized by BOCOG.
- 1.4 Session means the Ceremony and/or Events of the Games.
- 1.5 Venues are all places where the Sessions are held.
- 1.6 IOC means the International Olympic Committee, including its officers, directors, senior employees, staff, consultants, agents, representatives and volunteers.
- 1.7 Ticket is the ticket to a Session.
- 1.8 You (or "you") means anyone who purchases, holds or uses a Ticket.
- 1.9 Ceremony means the opening ceremony and the closing ceremony of the Games.
- 1.10 COC means the Chinese Olympic Committee, including its officers, managers, employees, agents, assignees, volunteers and the Chinese delegation to the Games.

2. Details about the Tickets and Sessions

- 2.1 All spectators, regardless of age, must have a valid Ticket to enter a Venue. The only exception to this rule is described in clause 2.2 below.
- 2.2 Any child who is two years old or younger than two years old on the day of the Session can enter the Venue without a Ticket, provided that the child shares the same seat with the child's guardian, who holds a valid Ticket.
- 2.3 You must purchase a Ticket from BOCOG or third parties authorized by BOCOG. If you acquire a Ticket through unauthorized channels (i.e., other than through BOCOG or third parties authorized by BOCOG), you should assume the risk that such Ticket could be previously lost or missing, stolen, counterfeited, damaged, illegible or obtained through other illegal means. In such case, you may be refused entry into the Venue or be requested to leave the Venue without receiving a refund nor a substitution.
- 2.4 You cannot resell or trade your Ticket. You cannot use the Ticket for any political, religious, commercial, advertising or promotional purposes (for example, as prizes for competitions, etc.) without the prior written approval of BOCOG.
- 2.5 Tickets to the Ceremonies may only be transferred once. You must obtain the written approval of BOCOG before you transfer a Ceremony Ticket and you may only transfer the Ceremony Ticket in compliance with the transfer procedures announced by BOCOG. BOCOG shall assume no responsibility for any Ticket holder who is refused entry into the Venue without a refund because a Ceremony Ticket was transferred without complying with BOCOG's announced transfer procedures.
- 2.6 The Ticket holder of a Ceremony Ticket must be the original purchaser or a transferee approved by BOCOG.

EXHIBIT F

2.7 BOCOG reserves the right to change the date, time, participants and other relevant details of all Sessions and BOCOG will give prior notice if reasonably able to do so.

2.8 BOCOG has the right to invalidate any Ticket for any reason at any time.

2.9 Please sit at your designated seat or area. The Ticket is only good for one admission into a Venue. You will be prohibited from re-entering the Venue if you leave for any reason.

3. Ticket Refund

3.1 You may not apply for, and will not be entitled to replace your Ticket nor receive refunds except as specified in 3.2 below or where required by law. For the avoidance of doubt:

3.1.1 In the event that you are refused entry into or requested to leave a Venue for failure to comply with any of these Terms and Conditions, BOCOG shall not be responsible and you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket.

3.1.2 If the start time or the end time of a Session is changed, but the Session is completed on the originally scheduled day, you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket.

3.1.3 If a Session is postponed or re-scheduled to another day, the Ticket shall be valid for the postponed or re-scheduled date, and you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket.

3.1.4 If a Session begins but does not finish, and BOCOG declares that the Session is officially terminated, you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket.

3.1.5 If there are changes to the schedule or participants of a Session, you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket.

3.2 If a Session is cancelled before it is scheduled to start and is not re-scheduled, you may apply for a refund after the end of the Games. The Ticket for such Session will not be replaced with a Ticket for another Session.

3.3 In all cases in which you are entitled to a refund, BOCOG will only refund the face value of the Ticket; interest thereon will not be paid. You may obtain a refund by mailing a refundable Ticket to BOCOG together with a duly completed and signed request form, made available by BOCOG at <http://tickets.beijing2008.cn>, provided that the postmark date shall not be later than October 31, 2008. For avoidance of doubt, BOCOG will not accept your application for a refund if you do not attend or are unable to attend a Session for personal reasons.

3.4 Under any of the following circumstances, BOCOG may refuse your entry or request you to leave the Venue, and you will not be entitled to a replacement or refund for your Ticket:

3.4.1 You fail to comply with any or all of these Terms and Conditions;

3.4.2 You refuse any security inspection of your person or possessions;

3.4.3 You disturb the smooth and orderly progression of the Games;

3.4.4 You disturb or infringe upon other people's enjoyment of the Session, comfort or safety;

3.4.5 Your Ticket is one that has been previously missing, lost by or stolen from someone else, or is counterfeit, damaged or illegible;

3.4.6 Your Ticket was purchased through illegal or unauthorized channels; or

3.4.7 BOCOG reasonably suspects any of the foregoing.

3.5 BOCOG shall not be responsible for any claims, damages, losses or expenses arising from the cancellation or alteration of the Games or any Session, except as specified in 3.2 above.

3.6 Please safeguard your Ticket carefully after you receive it. BOCOG shall not be responsible if you cannot enter the Venue because your Ticket is lost, stolen, missing, illegible, destroyed or invalidated for any reason.

4. Regulations about Access and Stay in the Venues

4.1 You are required to pay the maximum attention and exert the maximum prudence in the Venue for the safety of both yourself and any children accompanying you, and to comply with the warnings and the norms of behavior published in or in the proximity of the Venue. BOCOG shall not be responsible for the consequences of your imprudent or negligent behaviors.

4.2 You shall be responsible for the safety of both yourself and any children accompanying you.

4.3 You shall be responsible for the property of both yourself and any children accompanying you.

4.4 The Venue usually opens two (2) hours prior to the start time of a Session. Before traveling to the Venue, please check the start time of the Event or the Ceremony, the opening time of the Venue, the security inspection times and public transportation information to insure that you will be able to enter the Venue on time. You expressly consent, as a mandatory condition for access to a Venue, to a security inspection before your entry to the Venue and during the Session. The security checks may include a limited (body) search, and inspection of baggage or other objects owned or carried by both yourself and any children accompanying you. Please allow ample time for traffic and security inspections and enter the Venue as early as possible.

4.5 To the extent permitted by the law, you hereby irrevocably release BOCOG, the IOC, the COC (including their directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, agents and volunteers) from any liability for any damage, loss, liability or injury you may suffer in relation to your traveling to and attendance to the Games, howsoever caused.

- 4.6 You agree to provide compensation as directed and requested by BOCOG for any possible damage, loss or harm suffered by BOCOG or any other person due to your willful misconduct or negligence.
- 4.7 To enter and remain in a Venue, you shall expressly comply with the following provisions:
- 4.7.1 You accept and comply with all these Terms and Conditions;
 - 4.7.2 You agree to security inspections of your person and your baggage and other objects owned or carried by both yourself and any children accompanying you;
 - 4.7.3 You must not disturb the tranquility and/or safety of others within a Venue;
 - 4.7.4 Your Ticket must not be lost, missing, stolen, counterfeited, damaged or illegible;
 - 4.7.5 Your Ticket has not been purchased from an unauthorized person or entity.
- 4.8 You must not interrupt or disturb or attempt to interrupt or disturb the normal carrying out of the Games. You must abide by all policies, announcements or instructions issued by BOCOG relevant to attending the Games. To ensure the security and the smooth and orderly progression of the Games, you must abide by all the instructions of Venue personnel, including, without limitation, submitting to security checks and showing your Ticket.

5. Restricted or Prohibited Items and Behaviours

- 5.1 Please don't take any of the following articles into any Venue:
- 5.1.1 Beverages (whether in soft or hard containers, except for medical reasons) and large quantity of easily-thrown food;

 - 5.2.8 Other behaviours which distract the attention of athletes, technical officials or coaches, or affect the smooth and orderly progress of the Session or disturb other spectators attending the Session, including, without limitation, taking flash photography, entering the Venue in an obviously intoxicated state, or disobeying the orders of Venue personnel.
- 5.3 No unauthorized popularization, promotion, display of products, or money collection activities, including, without limitation, commercial, military or religion, politics, territory, environment-protection, human rights, animal-protection related activities; No distribution or promotion of any article with a corporate brand or logo thereon. No unauthorized TV broadcasting or use of professional videotaping equipments.
- 5.4 The following behaviours are strictly prohibited in all Venues: surrounding and assaulting the referees, athletes or other working personnel; any kind of gambling or betting; leading and/or taking part in a parade, sit-in or demonstration, causing a commotion after getting drunk, streaking, and other behaviours which disturb the smooth and orderly progression of the Games or violate Chinese laws and regulations.
- 5.5 You are required to carefully read the Spectator Guide for the Olympic Games before attending the Games. You can access more detailed information by calling (+8610 12308).

6. Photography or Recordings in the Venue

- 6.1 You consent to be photographed, filmed or taped by BOCOG, the IOC or their authorized third parties. BOCOG, the IOC or their authorized third parties shall have the right to broadcast, publish, license or use any photographs, films, recordings or images of you without any compensation. The IOC, BOCOG, the third parties and anyone acquiring from them the right to use the material are not liable to you in any way for its use.

6.2 Images, videos and sound recordings of the Games taken by you with a camera, video camera or audio equipment or any other kind of equipment may not be used for any purpose other than for private, domestic and non-commercial purposes (e.g., you may not sell, license, broadcast, publish, or otherwise commercially exploit such images, videos or sound recordings.).

7. Transport Information

7.1 During the seventeen-day Games period from August 8, 2008 to August 24, 2008, you may present your Ticket to travel for free on the date marked on your Ticket (until 4 a.m. the next morning) by public bus and subway within the Beijing Municipality (excluding passenger transport to suburban districts and counties, and the airport express).

7.2 When travelling you must present your Ticket to the bus driver or the conductor for checking. You are responsible for finding the location of the appropriate Venue and checking public transportation information. If you hold Tickets for different Sessions on the same day, you should set aside enough time to commute between each Venue, and pass through security inspections and Ticket checking. You must abide by all the rules posted in the public transportation vehicle and in the Venue.

8. Personal Data Protection

8.1 BOCOG will keep any personal data provided by Ticket holders strictly confidential. Such data will only be used for dealing with the Ticket applications and Ticket checking.

8.2 In order to ensure your Ticket purchase and your smooth entry into the Venue, you hereby explicitly agree that BOCOG or any third party authorized by BOCOG can keep and process your personal data as needed.

9. General

9.1 These Terms and Conditions, together with the provisions printed on the back of the Ticket ("Provisions"), set forth the entire agreement between you and BOCOG.

In the event of a discrepancy between the Provisions and the contents of these Terms and Conditions, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

9.2 BOCOG may, after issuing advance notice, amend, delete or add to the clauses of these Terms and Conditions (including the Provisions). In the event that any clause contained in these Terms and Conditions becomes unenforceable for any reason, such unenforceability shall not affect any other clause of these Terms and Conditions (including the Provisions).

9.3 All disputes relating to these Terms and Conditions (including the Provisions) shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the People's Republic of China.

Ticket Ordering Terms and Conditions

1. The following terms and conditions apply to all ticket buyers or ticket holders of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games and is valid for all tickets sold by BOCOG at any sales phase or under any sale methods.

2. The explanations for ticket application, payment instruction for each sales phase of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games and all policies, regulations, audience guidelines published in the future regarding ticketing of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games are integral parts of this document.

3. Beijing 2008 Olympic Games ticket(s) include the opening and closing ceremony tickets and the sports competition tickets. Excluding the Olympic Games accredited personnel, all persons shall buy tickets for entrance. The tickets shall only be sold to individuals and will not be sold to any organizations or groups.

4. When buying the tickets to the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games, the ticket buyers may submit the application only after they accept all terms and conditions.

5. BOCOG reserves all rights to refuse or accept any applications which are not completely filled, are inaccurately filled, or do not satisfy any or all of the terms or conditions under this document. BOCOG may, under its sole discretion, refuse applications submitted by anyone who plans to illegally resell the tickets or who fails to follow the rule allowing each person to submit only one ticket application.

6. The tickets sold during the first and second phases will be delivered to the buyer at the Bank of China branch as selected by the ticket buyer. The ticket buyer may pick up the tickets at the branch based upon the confirmation letter issued by BOCOG and the valid identification card.

7. The ticket buyer shall be responsible for all tickets after they have been picked up. BOCOG shall not compensate for lost, stolen, or damaged tickets. Any damage to the tickets may result in ticket holder not being allowed to enter the stadium or venue and BOCOG will not be responsible.

8. In consideration of the significance of the opening and closing ceremonies, all persons who have successfully purchased the tickets for the ceremonies will be required to submit their photos (the submission deadline and methods will be published separately) and only the person themselves will be allowed to enter the stadium. Persons who do not submit photos pursuant to the submission terms and rules will be deemed as automatically waiving the tickets they had booked and the payment will be refunded. The transfer of tickets for opening or closing ceremony shall be approved by BOCOG in writing and meet the required legal formalities (which will be published separately). Any transfer which does not meet the required terms or rules published by BOCOG will result in the ticket holder not being allowed to enter the stadium and BOCOG will not be responsible.

9. Any ticket holder who enters into a specific area, whether outside of or within the stadium or venue area, shall comply with the rules for ticket holders published by BOCOG and the Rules and Regulations printed on the reverse side of the tickets.

10. Children two years old or under may enter the stadium or venue without a ticket. However, they shall share the seat with their guardians.

11. If a competition or event is cancelled, the ticket holder may apply for a refund after Beijing Olympic Games. Such ticket holder shall submit an application form to BOCOG with his signature affixed on the tickets. The application form must be postmarked no later than October 31, 2008. BOCOG will not pay any interest on the refund. BOCOG will not accept any applications for refund in which the non-attendance is due to the ticket holder's waiver or any other personal reasons.
12. The ticket holder shall undertake all risks and dangers which the ticket holder may face while attending any competition or event. The ticket holder accepts that there are risks on the way to, and outside of or within the stadium or venue. The risks may include change in weather, the distance to and from the bus station or parking area and the stadium or venue, the situation on surface or underground, collision with athletes, volunteers, staff of BOCOG or other ticket holders. The ticket holder hereby clearly states that he will undertake all these risks or dangers. The ticket holder will undertake all risks regarding the possibility of not seeing any specific athlete due to the delay or cancellation of any competition or event. The ticket holder will further undertake all risks of loss of properties in the stadium.
13. The ticket holder agrees that the tickets will not be used for any politics, advertisement or promotion. The ticket holder shall not solicit donation, circulate propaganda material or leaflets or promote any commodities in the stadium. Ticket holder is further prohibited from wearing or taking any goods or clothing for political, advertising or promotional intentions into the stadium. Any propaganda or demonstration related to religion or race is prohibited in the stadium or venue. Any person who violates the above regulations will be required to immediately leave the stadium without any refund.
14. The ticket holder agrees that IOC, BOCOG and their authorized third parties may use the photos, video recordings, sound recordings or other images resembling of such ticket holder without any compensation. The ticket holder further agrees that, under no circumstances will he distribute images, sounds or videos he takes related to Beijing 2008 Olympic Games or the Beijing 2008 Paralympic Games by camera, video machine, video tape recorder and/or other photography, video recording or sound recording equipment or any other measures through any channels for any business purposes.
15. The ticket holder is not allowed to carry weapons, ammunition, dangerous articles, or explosive, chemical or flammable devices outside or within the stadium or venue and all of the above articles are not allowed to be deposited in the stadium or venue. Any ticket holder who possesses any forbidden articles or devices will be required to immediately leave the stadium and will not receive a refund. Any ticket holder who is in possession of any illegal article or device will be investigated. The ticket holder shall undergo inspection for forbidden articles and devices and any other security inspection implemented by BOCOG. The ticket holder who rejects the security inspection or refuses to comply with rules and security notice published by BOCOG will be required to immediately leave the stadium. Under all these circumstances the ticket holder and related ticket buyer will not be given a refund. BOCOG reserves the right to refuse entrance of such person within the proximity of or into the stadium and or expel him out of the stadium or venue. Anyone who is not in compliance with this document or other related rules, who is deemed as interfering with the competition or event by BOCOG, who is disturbing the enjoyment of the competition or event of other ticket holders, or who is disrupting the comfort or safety of other ticket holders, shall be required to immediately leave the stadium and shall not receive a refund.
16. Certain specific areas of the stadium, such as designated areas for media or athletes, will not be opened to the public.
17. Each ticket holder will only be allowed one entrance per ticket. If the ticket holder leaves the stadium or venue for any reason, the same ticket may not be used to re-enter the stadium or venue.
18. The ticket buyer and ticket holder shall be in compliance with all contents set out in this document. BOCOG will not take any responsibility for the ticket buyer or ticket holder who violates the responsibilities he should undertake.
19. The ticket buyer hereby acknowledges and confirms that once the ticket buyer becomes the ticket holder, he will be in compliance with all rules and regulations related to the use of ticket and viewing of the competition or event set out or recognized by IOC or BOCOG.
20. The ticket buyer agrees that BOCOG may adjust competition or event schedule, ticket price and other specific regulations according to the organization and preparation of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games and IOC without taking any responsibility on issuance of any notice or distribution of such notice to the ticket buyers.
21. If the ticket buyer has signed the ticket application or submitted the application through the official website of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games, it is acknowledgment that the ticket buyer has read all contents of this document, filling out instruction, and the payment instruction. The ticket buyer understands and accepts the methods of purchasing the ticket, payment and allocation methods of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games. The ticket buyer will accept and be in compliance with all related regulations. Otherwise, it will be deemed that the ticket buyer does not accept the related regulations.

Please be advised that information on this site is subject to change without notice.
