DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Mr. Dale W. Lee
Regional Attorney
Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services
P.O. Box 3700
Amarillo, Texas 79116-3700

OR97-0824

Dear Mr. Lee:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 105511.

The Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (the "department") received a request for a copy of a particular investigative case file from the parent of the child who is the subject of that file. You contend that the requested information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code, as well as sections 552.103 and 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 261.201 of the Family Code provides that, except as otherwise provided by that section, the files, reports, records, communications, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under chapter 261 or in providing services as a result of an investigation are confidential and not subject to release under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Fam. Code § 261.201(a)(2). Subsection (f) of section 261.201 provides:

(f) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), the department, on request and subject to department rule, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section if the department has edited the information to protect the confidentiality of the identity of the person who made the report and any other person whose life or safety may be endangered by the disclosure.

Subsection (b), which is not applicable here, describes the conditions when a court may order the disclosure of information made confidential by subsection (a). Subsection (f) appears to require the department to provide certain parties, including a parent of a child who is the subject of a child abuse investigation, the information made confidential by subsection (a), with certain redactions. As the requestor here is a parent of the child involved in the investigation, we must consider whether the department must release the requested information to the requestor pursuant to subsection (f). However, because the department's release of the information pursuant to subsection (f) is "subject to department rule," we must first consider whether the department's rules provide for the disclosure of the requested information to the requestor.

Section 700.102 of title 40 of the Texas Administrative Code states that:

Information about a child protective services client is confidential and may not be released except as authorized by statute, federal regulation, court direction, attorney general's opinion, and the [department's] rules concerning disclosure of information and confidentiality of information in Chapter 734 of this title (relating to Public Information).

Section 700.102 directs us to consider other department rules concerning the disclosure of client information. Section 700.103 of title 40 of the Texas Administrative Code provides:

A child protective services client may review all information in the client's case record except the identity of the complainant, information exempted from disclosure under the Open Records Act, and information exempted under other state laws.

40 T.A.C. § 700.103 (emphasis added). This rule permits a "client" to review that client's case record, with the exception of the complainant's identity and information excepted from disclosure under the Open Records Act. See also 31 T.A.C. § 734.11(c) (permitting client review of case record information, with certain exceptions). We assume that the requestor, a parent of the child who is the subject of the investigation, is a client for purposes of section 700.103. We now proceed to consider whether the information is exempted from disclosure under the Open Records Act.

Section 552.108 excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime," and "[a]n internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution." Gov't Code § 552.108; see Holmes v. Morales, 924 S.W.2d 920 (Tex. 1996).

You have provided us with a letter from the Randall County District Attorney's Office, which states that there is a pending criminal prosecution and that release of the records could hinder the investigation and prosecution. This office has previously held that section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of records. Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 372 (1983). Accordingly, you may withhold the requested information under section 552.108 of the Government Code.¹

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Kay Guajardo
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

¹We note that there may be a conflict between the provisions of section 261.201(f) and the department's current regulations, as section 261.201(f) appears to be a parental access provision while the department's regulations permit the department to withhold information from the parent.
