Dear Ms. Hunter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 114294.

The City of Georgetown (the "city") received an open records request for "write up and case work on Service #97-25611." You assert that the requested information is confidential pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code, as well as section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code exempts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." The Seventy-fifth Legislature passed House Bill 1550¹ which amends the Family Code and in part overrules Open Records Decision No. 644 (1996). Open Records Decision No. 644 (1996) holds that section 58.007 of the Family Code does not make confidential juvenile law enforcement records concerning juvenile conduct occurring on or after January 1, 1996 that are maintained by law enforcement agencies. Juvenile offender records held by law enforcement agencies are now expressly confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, section 58.007(c) only applies to juvenile law enforcement records concerning conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The relevant language of amended Family Code section 58.007(c) reads as follows:

(c) Except as provide by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

¹Act of June 2, 1997, H.B. 1550, 75th Leg., R.S.

- (1) kept separate from adult files and records; and
- (2) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B.

Open Records Decision No. 644 (1996) still applies to records concerning juvenile conduct that occurred from January 1, 1996 to August 31, 1997. Section 58.007(c) of the Family Code only applies to juvenile law enforcement records concerning juvenile conduct occurring on or after September 1, 1997 that are maintained by law enforcement agencies. Juvenile law enforcement records concerning conduct that occurred before January 1, 1996, are governed by former section 51.14(d) of the Family Code, which is continued in effect for that purpose. Act of June 2, 1997, H.B. 1550, 75th Leg., R.S.

Here, the requested information involves juvenile conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. As none of the exceptions in section 58.007 applies, the requested information is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. Thus, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

As section 58.007 of the Family Code is dispositive, we need not consider your section 552.108 claim. We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Michael A. Pearle
Assistant Attorney General
Open Government Section
