Dear Mr. Schnurr:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 121953.

The City of Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for information related to service number 0751787G. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Pursuant to section 552.301(b), a governmental body is required to submit to this office (1) general written comments stating the reasons why the stated exceptions apply that would allow the information to be withheld, (2) a copy of the written request for information, and (3) a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples, labeled to indicate which exceptions apply to which parts of the documents. You did not, however, submit to this office copies or representative samples of the specific information that was requested.

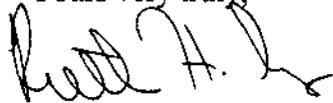

Pursuant to section 552.303(c) of the Government Code, this office notified you by letter dated January 8, 1999, that you had failed to submit the information required by section 552.301(b). We requested that you provide this information to our office within seven days from the date of receiving the notice. The notice further stated that under section 552.303(e) failure to comply would result in the legal presumption that the information at issue is public information.

You did not provide our office with the information that was requested. Therefore, as provided by section 552.303(e), the information that is the subject of this request for information is presumed to be public information. Information that is presumed public must be released unless a governmental body demonstrates a compelling interest to withhold the information to overcome this presumption. See Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381-82 (Tex. App.--Austin 1990, no writ) (governmental body must make compelling demonstration to overcome presumption of openness pursuant to statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.302); Open Records Decision No. 319 (1982). In the absence of a demonstration that the information is confidential by law or that other compelling reasons exist as to why the information should not be made public, you must release the information. Open Records Decision No. 195 (1978). You have not raised any specific compelling reasons to overcome the presumption that the information is public. Thus, we conclude that, with the possible exception of EMS records, the information must be released to the requestor.<sup>1</sup>

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied on as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have any questions regarding this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Ruth H. Soucy
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

<sup>1</sup>We observe that the request includes, among other things, copies of Emergency Medical Service ("EMS") records. You do not indicate that the department has the requested EMS records. However, we also note that if the department holds EMS records which are responsive to the request, access to these records is governed by sections 773.091 - .096 of the Texas Health and Safety Code. We also note that the distribution of confidential information to unauthorized persons is a criminal offense. Gov't Code § 552.352.
