OR2001-1546

Dear Ms. Janssen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 146168.

The Austin Independent School District (the “district”) received a request for “[t]he most recent internal audit of AISD high school athletic programs . . . referenced in a Jan. 24, 2001 letter from Kathy Rider to the school board trustees and district administrators.” You inform us that the above-referenced letter of January 24, 2001 has been released to the requestor, and that the “raw” internal audit report data is also being made available for inspection by the requestor.¹ You seek to withhold only a January 3, 2001 letter to the district from its private legal counsel which you have submitted to this office as responsive to the request. You claim that this document is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.107, and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.107(1) excepts information that an attorney of a political subdivision cannot disclose because of a duty to the client. In Open Records Decision No. 574 (1990), this office concluded that section 552.107 excepts from public disclosure only “privileged information,” that is, information that reflects either confidential communications from the client to the attorney or the attorney’s legal advice or opinions; it does not apply to all client information held by a governmental body’s attorney. Open Records Decision No. 574 at 5 (1990). A “confidential communication” is a communication “not intended to be disclosed to third persons other than those to whom disclosure is made in furtherance of the rendition of professional legal services to the client or those reasonably necessary for the transmission of the communication.” Tex. R. Evid. 503(a)(5). When communications from attorney to client do not reveal the client’s communications to the attorney, section 552.107 protects them only to the extent that such communications reveal the attorney’s legal opinion or advice. ORD 574 at 3. In addition, purely factual communications from attorney to client, or between attorneys representing the client, are not protected. Id.

¹In this regard, we note you also submitted information to this office that appears to be a sample of the raw internal audit report data referenced above, yet you make no arguments for withholding this information. If you have not done so already, you must make this information available to the requestor. See Gov’t Code § 552.302.

Having reviewed the information contained in Exhibit C, we conclude that it is excepted from disclosure in its entirety under section 552.107(1). Therefore, the district may withhold the information in Exhibit C from the requestor. As we resolve your request under section 552.107, we need not address your other claimed exceptions.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov’t Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body’s intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the General Services Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Pearle
Assistant Attorney General
