Mr. James M. Frazier, III
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004
Huntsville, Texas 77342-4004

OR2002-4679

Dear Mr. Frazier:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 167483.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the “department”) received a request for the file on Office of the Inspector General Case Number SC.15.3136.02.CY. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.029, 552.101, 552.107, 552.108, 552.111, and 552.134 of the Government Code and Rule 192.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.¹ We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note that you have submitted an Inter-Office Communication and a log of actions/comments regarding Case Number SC.15.3136.02.CY. You claim that these documents are not responsive to the present request. However, we find that the submitted Inter-Office Communication and log of actions/comments are part of the file on Case Number SC.15.3136.02.CY for purposes of this request. Therefore, we find that the submitted Inter-Office Communication and the log of actions/comments are responsive to the present request.

¹As you did not submit to this office written comments stating the reasons why sections 552.107 and 552.111 would allow the information to be withheld, we find that you have waived these exceptions. See Gov’t Code §§ 552.301, .302. Further, as you did not submit to this office written comments stating the reasons why section 552.101 of the Government Code and Rule 192.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure would allow the information to be withheld, we assume that you are no longer asserting these exceptions to disclosure.

We will now address your claimed exceptions with respect to all of the submitted information. Section 552.134(a) of the Government Code states in pertinent part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029, information obtained or maintained by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). The submitted information concerns inmates who are confined in a facility operated by the department. Section 552.029 of the Government Code does not apply to the submitted information. Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information from disclosure pursuant to section 552.134 of the Government Code. As section 552.134 is dispositive, we do not address your remaining claimed exceptions.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Karen A. Eckerle
Assistant Attorney General
