Ms. Alice Cardozo
Assistant Disclosure Officer
Information Release
Texas Workforce Commission
101 East 15th Street
Austin, Texas 78778-0001

OR2003-4897

Dear Ms. Cardozo:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 184522.

The Texas Workforce Commission (the "Commission") received a request for "all documents pertaining to the file of [a named individual] as it relates to either TCA LP or The Children's Center of Austin." You assert the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.107 of the Government Code. We reviewed the information you submitted and considered the exception you claim.

Initially, we note the applicability of section 552.101 of the Government Code, which excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision."¹ This section encompasses information protected by statute. In Open Records Decision No. 476 (1987), this office determined that "claim information" was confidential under federal regulations enacted pursuant to statutory authority. See 20 C.F.R. §§ 603.1 et seq. "Claim information" means information regarding:

- (1) Whether an individual is receiving, has received or has applied for unemployment compensation;

¹The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception like section 552.101 on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

(3) The individual's current (or most recent) home address;

(5) Any other information contained in the records of the State employment compensation agency which is needed by the requesting agency to verify eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits.

20 C.F.R. § 603.2(c)(1), (3), (5). Pursuant to title 20, section 603.7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, state unemployment compensation agencies, such as the Commission, must protect the confidentiality of claim information. 20 C.F.R. § 603.7. The federal Social Security Act requires states to comply with the directives of the United States Department of Labor (the "Department") in administering state Unemployment Insurance ("UI") programs and a Department directive, (UI Program Letter No. 34-97), specifies the conditions under which such claim information may be released. Based on our review of the submitted information, we believe Exhibit B consists of information contained in the Commission's records for the purpose of verifying eligibility for benefits or relates to whether the person has applied for or received unemployment compensation. See 20 C.F.R. § 603.2(c)(5). Therefore, we conclude the contents of Exhibit B constitute claim information made confidential by title 20, section 603.7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. See 20 C.F.R. § 603.7. Accordingly, the Commission must withhold Exhibit B, in its entirety, under section 552.101 in conjunction with federal law unless otherwise authorized to release the information under part 603 of title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations or UI Program Letter No. 34-97. As section 552.101 is dispositive, we need not address your claim under section 552.107 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Christen Sorrell
