Re: Request for information regarding a named individual from June 2003 through September 2003.

Dear Ms. Joe:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 191998.

You received a request for police reports for a certain time period and concerning three people. You submitted a report concerning one of the named persons. To the extent the information exists, you must release the remaining requested information. After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined that your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim that the requested information may be withheld from the requestor. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 58.007 of the Family Code, you must withhold the submitted information.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
