

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 30, 2004

Mr. Gordon R. Hikel
Brown & Hofmeister, L.L.P.
740 East Campbell Road, Suite 800
Richardson, Texas 75081

OR2004-3551

Dear Mr. Hikel:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 200600.

The Town of Flower Mound (the "town"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a named individual with regard to certain specified case numbers. You claim that the information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Section 552.101 encompasses confidentiality provisions such as Family Code section 58.007. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007. The relevant language of section 58.007(c) reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 applies to law enforcement records involving a juvenile suspect or offender, or a juvenile engaged in delinquent conduct or in need of supervision. See Fam. Code § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct;” “conduct indicating a need for supervision”). You inform us that the information at issue involves a juvenile victim of crime, and that “the juvenile was not one of the offenders in this arrest report.” In addition, our review of the submitted information reveals no information involving juvenile conduct. Therefore, we find that section 58.007 of the Family Code is inapplicable to the information at issue, and it may not be withheld on that basis.

We note, however, that the submitted information relates to a sex offender who was subject to registration under Chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Article 62.02(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure requires a sex offender registrant to provide the following information for the Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) sex offender registration database: the person’s full name; each alias; date of birth; sex; race; height; weight; eye color; hair color; social security number; driver’s license number; shoe size; home address; a photograph of the person; a complete set of the person’s fingerprints; the type of offense the person was convicted of; the age of the victim; the date of the conviction; the punishment received; an indication as to whether the person is discharged, paroled, or released on juvenile probation, community supervision, or mandatory supervision; and any other information required by DPS. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 62.02(b). This information is generally public information with the exception of the person’s social security number, driver’s license number, telephone number, all information required by DPS outside of the enumerated categories of information, and any information that would identify the victim of the offense for which the person is subject to registration. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 62.08(b). Accordingly, with the exception of the information not deemed public by article 62.08(b), the town must release the submitted sex offender registration information, as well as the remaining submitted information, to the requestor. See Gov’t Code § 508.313(e) (providing exception to statute’s confidentiality of information relating to an inmate of the institutional division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or a releasee, when information relates to sex offender and is authorized for release under Chapter 62, Code of Criminal Procedure).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Pearle
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
