

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 13, 2004

Ms. Tamara Y. S. Keener
County Attorney
Gillespie County
125 W. Main, Suite L41
Fredericksburg, Texas 78624

OR2004-3927

Dear Ms. Keener:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 201485.

Gillespie County (the "county") received one request for two categories of information pertaining to repairs to a specified road and certain guardrails for a specified period of time. The county also received a second request for seven categories of information pertaining to a specified bridge, certain 911 calls, and certain vehicle accidents for a specified period of time. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to section 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim. We have also considered comments submitted by one of the requestors. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (providing that person may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

We note that section 552.301(e) of the Government Code provides that a governmental body that requests an attorney general decision under section 552.301(a) must, within a reasonable time, but not later than the fifteenth business day after the date of receiving the written request, submit to the attorney general (1) written comments stating the reasons why the stated exceptions to disclosure apply that would allow the requested information to be withheld; (2) a copy of the written request for information; (3) a signed statement of or evidence sufficient to establish the date that the governmental body received the written request; and (4) a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples, labeled to indicate which exceptions to disclosure apply to which parts of the documents. See id. § 552.301(e). To date, the county has not submitted to us a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples of it, labeled to indicate which exceptions to disclosure apply to which parts of the documents. Accordingly, we conclude that the county failed to comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting this decision from us.

Because the county failed to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 with regard to the requested information, the information is now presumed public. See Gov't Code § 552.302; see also Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379 (Tex. App.-Austin 1990, no writ); City of Houston v. Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co., 673 S.W.2d 316, 323 (Tex. App.-Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, no writ); Open Records Decision No. 319 (1982). The county must demonstrate a compelling interest in order to overcome the presumption that the requested information is now public. See Gov't Code § 552.302. Normally, a compelling interest is demonstrated when some other source of law makes the requested information confidential or third party interests are at stake. See Open Records Decision No. 150 at 2 (1977) (construing predecessor statute). Although the county claims that the requested information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to section 552.103 of the Government Code, we note that this exception to disclosure is a discretionary exception to disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act") that does not constitute a compelling interest that is sufficient to overcome the presumption that the requested information is now public.¹ Accordingly, we conclude that the county may not withhold any portion of the requested information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. Consequently, the county must release the entirety of the requested information to the requestors.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Ronald J. Bounds
Assistant Attorney General
