

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

GREG ABBOTT

May 18, 2004

Ms. Paula C. Flowerday
Executive Secretary
Texas Racing Commission
P.O. Box 12080
Austin, Texas 78711-2080

OR2004-4089

Dear Ms. Flowerday:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 201717.

The Texas Racing Commission (the "commission") received a request for the following information for a specified time period: (1) the identification by name of thoroughbred horses which were found upon post-race serological testing to contain abnormally high red cell counts and/or abnormally high antibody levels consistent with treatment of those horses with agents such as Epogen, Procrit, Aranesp or similiar agents and (2) any documents identifying thoroughbred trainers who have been advised that their horses, as a result of serological post-race findings, may have been treated with EPO or other blood enhancing agents. You state that some of the responsive information has been released to the requestor. You claim that a portion of the remaining requested information is not public information subject to disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act") and further, that the commission does not have a right of access to this information. Alternatively, you claim that the remaining requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

We begin by addressing your argument that some of the requested information is not public information as defined by section 552.002(a) of the Government Code. The Act requires public disclosure only of "public information." See Gov't Code § 552.021; Economic Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision No. 452 at 3 (1986). "Public information" is defined under section 552.002 of the Act as:

information that is collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business:

(1) by a governmental body; or

(2) for a governmental body and the governmental body owns the information or has a right of access to it.

Gov't Code § 552.002(a). Thus, under this provision, information is generally "public information" within the scope of the Act when it relates to the official business of a governmental body or is maintained by a public official or employee in the performance of official duties, even though it may be in the possession of an individual. See Open Records Decision No. 635 at 4 (1995). Thus, virtually all information that is in a governmental body's physical possession constitutes public information that is subject to the Act. Id. § 552.002(a)(1); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 549 at 4 (1990), 514 at 1-2 (1988). Likewise, the Act is applicable to information that a governmental body does not physically possess, if the information is collected, assembled, or maintained for a governmental body, and the governmental body owns the information or has a right of access to it. See Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(2); see also Open Records Decision No. 462 at 4 (1987) (Act applies to information collected or maintained by consultant if information relates to governmental body's official duties or business, consultant acts as agent of governmental body in collecting information, and governmental body has or is entitled to access to information). However, the Act does not require a governmental body to release information if the governmental body that receives the request has neither possession of the information nor a right of access to it. See Open Records Decision Nos. 534 at 2-3 (1989), 518 at 2-3 (1989).

You state that the information at issue was "exchanged to further the enforcement efforts" of the commission and the Louisiana Racing Commission. Furthermore, you state that information was "assembled for research to determine possible use of certain drugs in racehorses[.]" The information at issue is also physically possessed by the commission. Upon review of the submitted information, we conclude that it relates to the official business of the commission and is thus subject to the Act. We therefore address your argument under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.108 provides in pertinent part:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation or prosecution of crime[.]

(b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the internal record would interfere with law enforcement or prosecution of crime[.]

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1), (b)(1). By its terms, section 552.108 applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that where an incident involving alleged criminal conduct is still under active investigation or prosecution, section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 372 (1983).

You explain that the Louisiana Racing Commission objects to the release of the submitted information at issue because it relates to their "ongoing investigation for possible violations of their rules[.]" We have received representation from the Louisiana Racing Commission confirming that it is law enforcement entity that is conducting a criminal investigation, and requesting that the information at issue not be released. Based upon these representations and our review, we conclude that release of the submitted information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). Thus, the commission may withhold the submitted information from disclosure under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Debbie K. Lee
