

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 3, 2005

Mr. Dan Meador
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of State Health Services
1100 West 49th Street
Austin, Texas 78756

OR2005-04862

Dear Mr. Meador:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 225431.

The Texas Department of State Health Services (the "department") received a request for the response to a complaint made against a named licensed social worker.¹ You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note, and you acknowledge, that you failed to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 in requesting a decision from this office. When a governmental body fails to comply with the requirements of section 552.301, the information at issue is presumed public and must be released unless there is a compelling reason to withhold it. Gov't Code § 552.302; Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ); City of Houston v. Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co., 673 S.W.2d 316, 323 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, no writ); Open Records Decision No. 319 (1982). A compelling reason for withholding information is demonstrated where information is made confidential by other law or where third party interests are at issue. Open Records Decision No. 150 (1977). In this instance, because you contend that the requested information is made confidential by other law, we will consider your arguments for non-disclosure.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code protects “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Section 505.2545 of the Occupations Code provides in relevant part as follows:

(h) All information and materials subpoenaed or compiled by [the Texas State Board of Social Worker Examiners] in connection with a complaint and investigation are confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, and not subject to disclosure to anyone other than the board or its employees or agents involved in discipline of the holder of a license or order of recognition, except that this information may be disclosed to:

- (1) persons involved with the board in a disciplinary action against the holder of a license or order of recognition;
- (2) professional social work licensing or disciplinary boards in other jurisdictions;
- (3) peer assistance programs approved by the board under chapter 467, Health and Safety Code;
- (4) law-enforcement agencies; and
- (5) persons engaged in bona fide research, if all individual-identifying information has been deleted.

(i) The filing of formal charges against a holder of a license or order of recognition, the nature of those charges, disciplinary proceedings of the board, and final disciplinary actions, including warnings and reprimands, by the board are not confidential and are subject to disclosure in accordance with Chapter 552, Government Code.

Occ. Code § 505.2545(h), (i). You indicate, and the submitted information reflects, that the submitted information was compiled by the Texas State Board of Social Worker Examiners (the “board”), which is part of the department’s Professional Licensing and Certification Unit, in connection with the board’s investigation of the requestor’s complaint against the named licensed social worker. You further state that none of the exceptions to confidentiality under section 505.2545(h) are applicable in this instance, and that none of the submitted information is subject to release under section 505.2545(i). On the basis of your representations and our review of the submitted information, we therefore conclude that the submitted information is made confidential in its entirety pursuant to section 505.2545(h) of the Occupations Code. The department therefore must withhold the requested information in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
