

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 13, 2005

Mr. John Ganzer
General Manager
Lake Livingston Water Supply and Sewer Service Corporation
P.O. Box 1149
Livingston, Texas 77351

OR2005-06204

Dear Mr. Ganzer:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 227149.

The Lake Livingston Water Supply and Sewer Service Corporation (the "corporation") received a request for copies of the proxy votes cast for the election of water board members. Although you inform us that the corporation is willing to release the responsive proxy forms, you ask whether certain information contained in the forms must be withheld from disclosure. You also ask whether the corporation may charge the requestor more than ten cents per copy. We have considered your comments and have reviewed the representative sample of responsive information you submitted.<sup>1</sup>

Initially, we note that you raise questions under the cost provisions of the Act. These provisions are found at subchapter F of the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.261 et seq. The Texas Building and Procurement Commission ("TBPC") is responsible for the administration and enforcement of these provisions. Section 552.262 directs the TBPC to adopt rules for use by each governmental body in determining charges for providing copies of public information under the Act. The rules adopted by the TBPC are found at title 1 of the Texas Administrative Code. The corporation must comply with subchapter F of the Act and the rules adopted by the TBPC relating to charging for copies of public information. You should direct any questions that relate to these cost provisions to the TBPC.

<sup>1</sup>This letter ruling assumes that the submitted information is truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling neither reaches nor authorizes the corporation to withhold any information that is substantially different from the submitted information. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(D), .302; Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).

Next, we address the account number contained in the submitted proxy form. The account number is confidential under section 552.136 of the Government Code, which provides as follows:

(a) In this section, "access device" means a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to:

(1) obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value; or

(2) initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.

Gov't Code § 552.136.<sup>2</sup> The corporation must withhold the account number that we have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.<sup>3</sup> The rest of the submitted information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

<sup>2</sup>This office will raise section 552.136, as it is a mandatory exception to disclosure and may not be waived. See Gov't Code §§ 552.007, .352; Open Records Decision No. 674 at 3 n.4 (2001) (mandatory exceptions).

<sup>3</sup>We note that the requestor would have a right of access to her own account number under section 552.023 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning herself).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Tex. Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
