Dear Ms. Villarreal:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 274635.

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for the custodial death reports filed by Potter County Jail from 1999 to 2005. The OAG asserts the documents attached to the reports are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the OAG's claimed exception and have reviewed the submitted sample of information.¹

Article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides that with the exception of any portion of the custodial death report that the OAG determines is privileged, the OAG shall make the report public. Code Crim. Proc. art. 49.18(b). In 2003, the OAG revised the format of the custodial death report to consist of two pages and an attached summary of how the death occurred. The OAG has determined that the two-page report and summary must be released to the public but that any other documents submitted with the revised report are confidential under article 49.18(b). However, article 49.18(b) does not make confidential all information held by a local law enforcement agency simply because the information is ¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

also included in extraneous documents attached to a custodial death report submitted to the OAG. If a governmental body receives a request for information otherwise generated or maintained by the law enforcement agency as part of its ordinary responsibilities, those documents may be withheld only if one of the Act's exceptions or another specific law protects them. Open Records Decision No. 521 at 7 (1989). In this instance, the OAG states it has released the two-page custodial death reports and attached summaries. Pursuant to article 49.18(b), the OAG must withhold the attachments to the reports.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Yen-Ha Le
