

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 14, 2007

Ms. Julie Joe
Assistant County Attorney
County of Travis
P.O. Box 1748
Austin, Texas 78767

OR2007-07512

Dear Ms. Joe:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 281008.

The Travis County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for "every item that the [sheriff] has regarding and pertaining to [a named individual]" and a specific arrest. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information that is made confidential by statute. Criminal history record information ("CHRI") generated by the National Crime Information Center ("NCIC") or by the Texas Crime Information Center ("TCIC") is confidential. The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. See Gov't Code § 411.083. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI that ¹Although you also raised sections 552.103, 552.107, 552.108, 552.111, and 552.137 of the Government Code in your brief dated April 10, 2007, you have provided no arguments explaining how these exceptions are applicable to the submitted information. Therefore, we presume you no longer assert these exceptions to disclosure. Gov't Code §§ 552.301, .302.

the Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) maintains, except that the DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See id. Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090 - .127. Furthermore, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. A portion of the submitted information constitutes CHRI generated by TCIC and NCIC. We have marked the information the sheriff must withhold pursuant to section 552.101 in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses the common-law right of privacy, which protects information if it (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). The types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. Id. at 683. In addition, this office has found that the following types of information are excepted from required public disclosure under common-law privacy: some kinds of medical information or information indicating disabilities or specific illnesses, see Open Records Decision Nos. 470 (1987) (illness from severe emotional and job-related stress), 455 (1987) (prescription drugs, illnesses, operations, and physical handicaps); personal financial information not relating to the financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body, see Open Records Decision Nos. 600 (1992), 545 (1990); and identities of victims of sexual abuse, see Open Records Decision Nos. 440 (1986), 393 (1983), 339 (1982). Upon review, we agree that a portion of the information must be withheld under common-law privacy. We have marked the information that the sheriff must withhold under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. We conclude that the remaining information is not confidential under common-law privacy and may not be withheld under section 552.101.

You also raise section 552.130 of the Government Code. Section 552.130 excepts from disclosure “information [that] relates to. . . a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state [or] a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state.” Gov’t Code § 552.130. Accordingly, the sheriff must withhold the Texas driver’s license numbers you have marked pursuant to section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the sheriff must withhold the CHRI information we have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code. The sheriff must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. The sheriff must withhold the Texas driver's license information you have marked. The remaining information must be released to the requestor.²

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code.
