Dear Mr. Phillips:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 340658.

The Fort Worth Police Department (the "department") received a request for arrest and search warrants pertaining to a specified incident. You state that you have released the requested warrants to the requestor. You claim the submitted documents are not responsive to this request. Alternatively, you claim that the submitted documents are exempted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

You argue that the submitted information, which consists of supporting documentation used to obtain the requested warrants, is not responsive to this request for information. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted documents, we agree that the information at issue is not responsive to the present request. This ruling does not address the public availability of any information that is not responsive to the request, and the department is not required to release the information at issue in response to this request.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
