

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

March 10, 2009

Ms. Janice Kennedy Hampton
City Attorney
City of Bryan
P.O. Box 1000
Bryan, Texas 77805

OR2009-03119

Dear Ms. Hampton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 336883.

The City of Bryan Police Department (the "department") received a request for all messages sent or received from mobile computers during a specified time period. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes. The relevant language of section 58.007 of the Family Code reads as follows:

<sup>1</sup>We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e). Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007. The submitted information involves juvenile conduct occurring after September 1, 1997; therefore, the submitted information is subject to section 58.007. It does not appear that any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply. Accordingly, the department must withhold Exhibit B in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses laws that make criminal history record information ("CHRI") confidential. CHRI generated by the National Crime Information Center or by the Texas Crime Information Center is confidential under federal and state law. Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI states obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI the Department of Public Safety ("DPS") maintains, except DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 411.083.

Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090-.127. Similarly, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. However, section 411.081(b) allows a police department to disclose to the public CHRI “that is related to the offense for which a person is involved in the criminal justice system.” Id. § 411.081(b). Accordingly, you must withhold the criminal history information we have marked in Exhibit C under section 552.101 in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code. The remaining information pertains to active warrants that indicate an individuals’ current involvement in the criminal justice system. Thus, we conclude that no portion of the remaining information may be withheld under chapter 411 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 182.052 of the Utilities Code, which provides in relevant part as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Section 182.054, a government-operated utility may not disclose personal information in a customer’s account record, or any information relating to the volume or units of utility usage or the amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage, if the customer requests that the government-operated utility keep the information confidential. However, a government-operated utility may disclose information related to the customer’s volume or units of utility usage or amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage if the primary source of water for such utility was a sole-source designated aquifer.

(b) A customer may request confidentiality by delivering to the government-operated utility an appropriately marked form provided under Subsection (c)(3) or any other written request for confidentiality.

Util. Code § 182.052(a)-(b). “Personal information” under section 182.052(a) means an individual’s address, telephone number, or social security number. See id. § 182.051(4); see also Open Records Decision No. 625 (1994) (construing statutory predecessor). We note that the names of customers are not included in the definition of personal information, and therefore are not confidential under section 182.052 of the Utilities Code. In this instance, you have failed to demonstrate that the submitted information is held by a government-operated utility. Therefore, we have no basis for concluding section 182.052 of the Utilities Code is applicable to any of the submitted information.

Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be established. Id. at 681-82. This office has found that personal financial information not relating to a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body is generally intimate and embarrassing. See Open Records Decision No. 545 (1990). We have marked information that constitutes personal financial information. We find that there is not a legitimate public interest in the release of this information. Thus, the department must withhold the information we have marked in Exhibit E under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Finally, you assert that some of the information in Exhibit E is excepted under section 552.130 of the Government Code. Section 552.130 provides that information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title, or registration issued by a Texas agency is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1), (2). Therefore, the department must withhold the information we have marked, under section 552.130. However, none of the remaining information you have marked under section 552.130, including motor vehicle information issued by another state, may be withheld.

In summary, the department must withhold Exhibit B in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. The department must also withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code and section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.<sup>2</sup>
