OR2009-06627

Dear Ms. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 344037.

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for (1) records regarding a particular individual committing a particular crime and (2) an arrest report from December 2008 involving a particular individual. You state there is no information responsive to item 1. The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dism'd); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983). You claim the information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information that other statutes make confidential, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007, "child" means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. Fam. Code § 51.02(2). Section 58.007 provides in relevant part:

- (c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B, D, and E.

Id. § 58.007(c). After reviewing the submitted information, we find it involves juvenile delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. Id. § 51.03(a) (defining “delinquent conduct”). It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply; therefore, the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>
