Credit Union Department

OR2009-06989

Dear Ms. Loar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 343964.

The Texas Credit Union Department (the "department") received a request for all information pertaining to determination letters, cease and desist orders, or other regulatory actions against Texans Credit Union ("Texans") in 2007 and 2008. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.112 of the Government Code. Additionally, you state that release of the submitted information may implicate the proprietary interests of Texans and that you have notified Texans of the request and of its opportunity to submit comments to this office as to why the requested information should not be released to the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (determining that statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain the applicability of exception to disclose under Act in certain circumstances). We have received arguments submitted by Texans. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>We assume that the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. The department asserts that the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 126.002 of the Finance Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsections (b) and (c), information obtained directly or indirectly by the department in any manner, including by application or examination, concerning the financial condition or business affairs of a credit union and the files and records of the department relating to that information, except a statement intended for publication, are confidential.

(b) Confidential information may not be disclosed to a member of the [credit union] commission, and a member of the commission may not be given access to the files or records of the department, except that the [credit union] commissioner may disclose to the commission information, files, and records pertinent to a hearing or matter pending before the commission or the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner may disclose the information described by Subsection (a) to a law enforcement agency or another department, agency, or instrumentality of this state, another state, or the United States if the commissioner determines that disclosure is necessary or proper to enforce the laws of this state applicable to credit unions.

Fin. Code § 126.002(a)-(c). We understand that Texans is a credit union that is regulated and monitored by the department. You state that the submitted information concerns the financial condition and business affairs of Texans. You further state the submitted information consists of records requested and obtained by the department. You also state the submitted information is contained in the files and records of the department. We note that the release provisions in subsections 126.002(b) and (c) are not applicable in this instance. See id. § 126.002(b)-(c). Therefore, based on your representations and our review, we conclude that the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 126.002(a) of the Finance Code and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

<sup>2</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address any of the remaining arguments against disclosure.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Sincerely,

Chris Schulz
