

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 21, 2009

Ms. Christina R. Sanchez
Assistant County Attorney
El Paso County, Texas
County Courthouse
500 E. San Antonio, Room 503
El Paso, Texas 79901

OR2009-10107

Dear Ms. Sanchez:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 349643.

The El Paso County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney") received a request for information pertaining to two named individuals and three specified cause numbers. You state you have no information responsive to the request for cause numbers 970C19153 and 970C19155.¹ You state you are providing most of the requested information. You claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code.² We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.³

¹ The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dism'd); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

² You state you are withdrawing your claim under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

³ We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Access to medical records is governed by the Medical Practice Act ("MPA"), chapter 159 of the Occupations Code. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides:

(a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002(a)-(c). This office has concluded that the protection afforded by section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). We have also found that when a file is created as the result of a hospital stay, all the documents in the file relating to diagnosis and treatment constitute physician-patient communications or "[r]ecords of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that are created or maintained by a physician." Open Records Decision No. 546 (1990). Furthermore, information that is subject to the MPA also includes information that was obtained from medical records. See Occ. Code. § 159.002(a)-(c); see also Open Records Decision No. 598 (1991).

Medical records must be released upon the governmental body's receipt of the patient's signed, written consent, provided that the consent specifies (1) the information to be covered by the release, (2) reasons or purposes for the release, and (3) the person to whom the information is to be released. See Occ. Code §§ 159.004, .005. Section 159.002(c) also requires that any subsequent release of medical records be consistent with the purposes for which the governmental body obtained the records. See Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990). Upon review, the information we have marked consists of medical records that are subject to the MPA. The district attorney may only disclose these records in accordance with the MPA. See ORD 598.

Section 552.101 also encompasses section 258.102 of the Occupations Code, which provides in pertinent part:

(a) The following information is privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this subchapter:

(1) a communication between a dentist and a patient that relates to a professional service provided by the dentist; and

(2) a dental record.

Occupation Code § 258.102(a). A “dental record” means dental information about a patient that is created or maintained by a dentist and relates to the history or treatment of the patient. See id. § 258.101(1). Information that is privileged under chapter 258 of the Occupations Code may be disclosed only under certain specified circumstances. See id. § 258.104 (consent to disclosure); see also id. §§ 258.105, .106, .107 (exceptions to privilege). When the patient is deceased, as is the case here, consent for the release of privileged information must be signed by a personal representative of the patient. See id. § 258.104(b)(5). The written consent for the release of privileged information required under section 258.104 must specify (1) the information covered by the release, (2) the person to whom the information is to be released, and (3) the purpose for the release. Id. § 258.104(c). A person who receives information that is privileged under section 258.102 of the Occupations Code may disclose that information to another person only to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the purpose for which the information was obtained. See id. § 258.108. We have marked the submitted dental records that are privileged under section 258.102 of the Occupations Code. The dental records may only be released in accordance with chapter 258 of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 encompasses criminal history record information (“CHRI”) generated by the National Crime Information Center (“NCIC”) or by the Texas Crime Information Center (“TCIC”). Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI that state agencies obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI that DPS maintains, except that DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov’t Code § 411.083. Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090-411.127. Furthermore, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. Therefore, the district attorney must withhold the CHRI that we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with federal law and chapter 411 of the Government Code. However, we determine that no portion of the remaining information constitutes CHRI generated by either the TCIC or NCIC databases. Therefore, no portion of the remaining information is confidential under chapter 411 and none of the remaining information may be withheld under section 552.101 on that basis.

Section 552.101 also encompasses chapter 560 of the Government Code, which provides that a governmental body may not release fingerprint information except in certain limited circumstances. See id. §§ 560.001 (defining “biometric identifier” to include fingerprints), .002 (prescribing manner in which biometric identifiers must be maintained and circumstances in which they can be released), .003 (providing that biometric identifiers in possession of governmental body are exempt from disclosure under Act). You do not inform us, and the submitted information does not indicate, that section 560.002 permits the disclosure of the submitted fingerprint information. Therefore, the district attorney must withhold the biometric information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses article 49.25 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Section 11 of article 49.25 provides as follows:

The medical examiner shall keep full and complete records properly indexed, giving the name if known of every person whose death is investigated, the place where the body was found, the date, the cause and manner of death, and shall issue a death certificate. . . . The records are subject to required public disclosure in accordance with Chapter 552, Government Code, except that a photograph or x-ray of a body taken during an autopsy is excepted from required public disclosure in accordance with Chapter 552, Government Code, but is subject to disclosure:

- (1) under a subpoena or authority of other law; or
- (2) if the photograph or x-ray is of the body of a person who died while in the custody of law enforcement.

Crim. Proc. Code art. 49.25, § 11. Because neither exception to confidentiality applies to the information in this instance, the submitted autopsy photographs are confidential under article 49.25 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and must be withheld from disclosure in conjunction with section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, such that its release would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be met. Id. at 681-87. The types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. Id. at 683. This office has found that personal financial information not relating to a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body is excepted from required public disclosure under common-law privacy. See Open Records Decision Nos. 600 (1992), 545 (1990). Furthermore, a compilation of an individual's criminal history is highly embarrassing information, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. Cf. U. S. Dep't of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 764 (1989) (finding significant privacy interest in compilation of individual's criminal history by recognizing distinction between public records found in courthouse files and local police stations and compiled summary of criminal history information). This office has also found that a compilation of a private citizen's criminal history is generally not of legitimate concern to the public.

Upon review, we find that some of the submitted information is highly intimate or embarrassing and of no legitimate public interest. Therefore, the district attorney must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. However, we find that none of the remaining information is intimate or embarrassing or there is a legitimate public interest in the information. Therefore, none of the remaining information is confidential under common-law privacy, and the district attorney may not withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.130 excepts from disclosure "information [that] relates to: (1) a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state; (2) a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state; or (3) a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document." Gov't Code § 552.130(a). We note, however, that section 552.130 does not apply to out-of-state motor vehicle record information. Accordingly, the district attorney must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the district attorney may only disclose the marked medical records in accordance with the MPA. The dental records may only be released in accordance with chapter 258 of the Occupations Code. The district attorney must withhold the CHRI that we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with federal law and chapter 411 of the Government Code. The district attorney must withhold the biometric information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code. The district attorney must withhold the submitted autopsy photographs under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 49.25 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The district attorney must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The district attorney must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

Sincerely,

Chris Schulz
