

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

August 24, 2009

Ms. Amanda M. Bigbee
General Counsel
Keller Independent School District
350 Keller Parkway
Keller, Texas 76248

OR2009-11895

Dear Ms. Bigbee:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 353129.

The Keller Independent School District (the "district") received a request for the responses to the district's request for proposals ("RFP") for delinquent tax collection services. You take no position on the public availability of the requested information. You believe, however, that this request for information may implicate the proprietary interests of Gay, McCall, Isaacks, Gordon & Roberts, P.C.; Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP; and the Law Offices of Robert E. Luna, P.C. You notified the interested third parties of this request for information and of their right to submit arguments to this office as to why the information should not be released.<sup>1</sup> We have reviewed the information you submitted.

We also received a copy of a letter to the district from the requestor.<sup>2</sup> The letter states that the requestor has no objection to the release of its response to the district's RFP. We note, however, that the requestor specifically excluded its own proposal from the scope of its request for information. Thus, the requestor's proposal is not responsive to the request. Therefore, this decision does not address the public availability of the requestor's proposal, and that information need not be released.

<sup>1</sup>See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.305 permitted governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception to disclosure under certain circumstances).

<sup>2</sup>See Gov't Code § 552.304 (any person may submit written comments stating why information at issue in request for attorney general decision should or should not be released).

We next note that an interested third party is allowed ten business days from the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305 of the Government Code to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this decision, this office has received no correspondence from any of the interested parties that were notified. Thus, none of the interested parties has demonstrated that any of the submitted information is proprietary for the purposes of the Act. See id. § 552.110(a)-(b); Open Records Decision Nos. 552 at 5 (1990), 661 at 5-6 (1999). Therefore, none of the submitted information may be withheld on that basis.

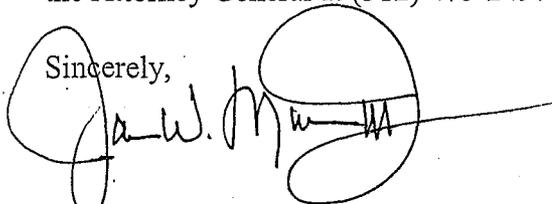

Lastly, we note that some of the submitted information appears to be protected by copyright. A governmental body must allow inspection of copyrighted information unless an exception to disclosure applies to the information. See Attorney General Opinion JM-672 (1987). An officer for public information also must comply with copyright law, however, and is not required to furnish copies of copyrighted information. Id. A member of the public who wishes to make copies of copyrighted information must do so unassisted by the governmental body. In making copies, the member of the public assumes the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit. See Open Records Decision No. 550 at 8-9 (1990).

In summary, the submitted information must be released to the requestor, but any information protected by copyright may only be released in accordance with copyright law.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

Sincerely,
