Dear Ms. Webster:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 356776 (Waco No. LGL-09-752).

The Waco Police Department (the "department") received a request for reports and calls for service pertaining to a specified area and occurring over a specified period of time. You state some information has been released. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision," and encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. Gov't Code § 552.101. You contend that the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers contained in the submitted CAD sheets are excepted under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. Chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code relates to local emergency communications districts. Section 772.318 applies to an emergency 9-1-1 district established in accordance with chapter 772, and makes confidential the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers that are furnished by a service supplier. See Open Records Decision No. 649 (1996). We understand the City of Waco to be part of an emergency communication district that was established under section 772.318.¹ You have marked telephone numbers and addresses the department seeks to withhold under section 772.318. However, we note in some instances you have marked multiple additional telephone numbers within the CAD records. It is unclear which of these telephone numbers are the originating telephone numbers provided by a 9-1-1 service supplier. Thus, to the extent the telephone numbers and addresses you have marked are the originating telephone numbers and addresses supplied by a 9-1-1 service supplier, this information must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. However, to the extent any of the marked information is not the originating telephone number or address of a 9-1-1 caller that was supplied by a 9-1-1 service supplier, section 772.318 is not applicable to this information and it must be released to the requestor. The remaining information in the submitted CAD records must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
