Ms. Luz E. Sandoval-Walker
Assistant City Attorney
City of El Paso

El Paso, Texas 79901

OR2009-13434

Dear Ms. Sandoval-Walker:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 356627.

The El Paso Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the department or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:

(A) the child who is the subject of the report; or

(B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Act of May 28, 2007, 80th Leg., R.S., ch. 263, § 12, 2007 Tex. Gen. Laws 421, 428, amended by Act of June 1, 2009, 81st Leg., R.S., S.B. 1050, § 1 and Act of June 3, 2009, 81st Leg., R.S., S.B. 1182, § 13 (to be codified as amendments of Fam. Code § 261.201). The submitted information consists of files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, or working papers used or developed in an investigation under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. § 261.001 (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of Fam. Code ch. 261); Penal Code § 22.04(c) (defining “child” for purposes of injury to a child as a person 14 years of age or younger). Therefore, the submitted report is generally confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code. However, the requestor is the parent of the child victim listed in the report, and the parent is not alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. In this instance, the department may not use section 261.201(a) to withhold this report from this requestor. Id. § 261.201(k). Section 261.201(l)(2), however, states any information that is excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may still be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(l)(2). Further, section 261.201(l)(3) states the identity of the reporting party must be withheld. Id. § 261.201(l)(3). You assert that a portion of the submitted report is excepted from public disclosure under section 552.147. Accordingly, we will consider your remaining argument against disclosure.

Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Id. §552.147(b). However, the requestor, as the parent of the child whose social security number is at issue, has a special right of access under section 552.023 of the Government Code to the child's social security number. See Gov't Code § 552.023 (person or the parent of minor has a special right of access to information that is excepted from public disclosure under laws intended to protect that person's or that person's child's privacy interest). Accordingly, the department may not withhold the social security number in the submitted information pursuant to section 552.147(b) and must release it to the requestor.

In summary, the department must withhold the reporting party's identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3). The remaining information must be released to the requestor.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Assistant Attorney General <sup>1</sup>We note the remaining information being released contains confidential information regarding the alleged child victim to which the requestor has a right of access as the child's parent. See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). If the department receives another request for this particular information from a different requestor, then the department should again seek a decision from this office.
