

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

November 16, 2009

Mr. Joe Torres, III
216 North Texas Boulevard, Suite 2
Alice, Texas 78332

OR2009-16226

Dear Mr. Torres:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 361818.

The Alice Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a named individual regarding a specified case, particularly for the supplement to a specified incident report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code provides in relevant part:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

- (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime;
- (2) it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication;
- (3) it is information relating to a threat against a peace officer or detention officer collected or disseminated under Section 411.048; or
- (4) it is information that:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

(b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the internal record or notation would interfere with law enforcement or prosecution;

(2) the internal record or notation relates to law enforcement only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication; or

(3) the internal record or notation:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)-(b). A governmental body claiming subsection 552.108(a)(1) or 552.108(b)(1) must reasonably explain how and why release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), (b)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You do not inform us the submitted information pertains to an ongoing criminal investigation or prosecution, nor have you explained how its release would interfere in some way with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. Thus, you have not met your burden under section 552.108(a)(1) or 552.108(b)(1). A governmental body claiming subsection 552.108(a)(2) or 552.108(b)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. You also do not inform us the submitted information pertains to a concluded investigation. Thus, you have not met your burden under subsection 552.108(a)(2) or 552.108(b)(2). Section 552.108(a)(3) is also inapplicable as you have not demonstrated the submitted information relates to a threat against a police officer. See Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(3). Lastly, you do not assert the information at issue was prepared by an attorney representing the state or that it reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state. See id. § 552.108(a)(4), (b)(3). Therefore, the department may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.108.

We note the submitted information contains information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ Section 552.130 excepts from disclosure "information [that] relates to: (1) a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state; (2) a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state; or (3) a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document." Id. § 552.130(a). We note section 552.130 does not apply to out-of-state motor vehicle record information. Id. Although some information we have marked pertains to motor vehicle record information issued by an agency of this state, we are unable to determine whether the remaining marked information was also issued by an agency of this state. Accordingly, to the extent the information we have marked pertains to Texas motor vehicle record information, the department must withhold it pursuant to section 552.130. As you raise no further exceptions against disclosure, the remaining information must be released.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
