Irving, Texas 75060

OR2009-16404

Dear Ms. Gambini:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 361809.

The City of Irving (the "city") received a request for certain records pertaining to a specified employee. You state the city has provided some of the requested information to the requestor. You claim portions of the submitted employment application are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, you state the city has redacted certain information, which you have submitted for our review, pursuant to section 552.024 of the Government Code. This section authorizes a governmental body to redact from public release a current or former official's or employee's home address, home telephone number, social security number, and information that reveals whether the person has family members without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act, if the employee or official timely elected to withhold such information. Gov't Code § 552.024(a)-(c). In this instance, in addition to the information authorized to be redacted under section 552.024, you have redacted the lengths of time the employee lived at his listed home addresses. Because the redaction of this information is not specifically authorized under section 552.024, the information may not be redacted on that basis. As you have not claimed any exceptions for this information, we have marked it for release.

You claim portions of the submitted employment application are excepted under section 552.130 of the Government Code, which provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license issued by a Texas agency is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1). Thus, the city must withhold the Texas driver's license information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government, Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Leah B. Wingerson
Assistant Attorney General
