

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

Ms. Lillian Guillen Graham
Assistant City Attorney

OR2010-04578

Dear Ms. Graham:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 374501.

The Mesquite Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in pertinent part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l). You state that the submitted information relates to an investigation of child abuse by the department. Based upon your representation and our review, we find the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation by the department of alleged or suspected child abuse under chapter 261. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for the purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. §101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201 as “person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes”). Accordingly, we find that the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code.

You ask whether the requestor has a right of access to the information under section 552.023 of the Government Code. Section 552.023 provides that a person or a person’s authorized representative has a special right of access to information that is excepted from public disclosure under laws intended to protect that person’s privacy interests. See Gov’t Code § 552.023(a). However, the release of information made confidential by section 261.201 of the Family Code is governed by the provisions of chapter 261 of the Family Code, not by section 552.023 of the Government Code. In this instance, you inform us, and the submitted documentation reflects, that the requestor is a parent of the child victim listed in the information at issue. Further, the requestor is not the individual alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. See id. § 261.201(k). Because the requestor is a parent of the child victim, the department may not use section 261.201(a) to withhold the submitted information from this requestor. Id. Section 261.201(1)(3), however, states the identity of the reporting party must be withheld. Id. § 261.201(1)(3). Thus, the department must withhold the reporting party's identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code. As the department raises no other exceptions to disclosure, the remaining information must be released to this requestor.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
