Richardson, Texas 75081

OR2011-04879

Dear Mr. Griffith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 414106.

The Little Elm Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for "a copy of the 911 operator call sheet and the 911 Audio Sound file" pertaining to a specified incident that occurred in 2009. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information does not contain the requested 911 operator call sheet or 911 audio sound file. Thus, the submitted information is not responsive to the request for information. The department is not required to release non-responsive information in response to this request under the Act, and this ruling will not address that information. Accordingly, we do not address your submitted arguments under the Act. As you have not submitted the requested information for our review, we assume the department has released it to the requestor, to the extent it existed when the department received the request. If not, then the department must do so immediately. See Gov't Code §§ 552.006, 552.301, 552.302; Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

James L. Coggeshall
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
