Dear Ms. Towe:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 415448.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for a named inmate's entire parole file and all other records pertaining to the named inmate. You state the department has provided or will provide some of the requested information to the requestor. You claim the submitted inmate records are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134 of the Government Code relates to inmates and former inmates of the department and provides, in relevant part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). Upon review, we agree all of the submitted information consists of records pertaining to an individual confined as an inmate in a facility operated by the department and is, therefore, subject to section 552.134. We find the exceptions in section 552.029 are not applicable in this instance. Therefore, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134(a) of the Government Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
