Ms. Donna G. Kaspar
District Attorney
349th Judicial District
401 East Houston, 2nd Floor

OR2011-08480

Dear Ms. Kaspar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 420718.

The 349th District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney") received two requests for information pertaining to a named individual's arrest. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision."<sup>1</sup> Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, including section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

<sup>1</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987)

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). We find the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of “abuse” includes indecency with a child, sexual assault, and aggravated sexual assault under Penal Code sections 21.11, 22.011, and 22.021); see also Penal Code §§ 21.11(a), .011(c)(1) (defining “child” for purposes of Penal Code sections 21.11, 21.011, and 21.021 as a person younger than 17 years of age). Therefore, the submitted information falls within the scope of section 261.201(a). Thus, we conclude the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code, and the district attorney must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute). As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your argument against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
