

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

March 30, 2012

Mr. James T. Jeffrey, Jr.
For City of Dalworthington Gardens
Law Offices of Jim Jeffrey
2214 Park Springs Boulevard
Arlington, Texas 76013

OR2012-04640

Dear Mr. Jeffrey:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 449135.

The Dalworthington Gardens Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received two requests from the same requestor for information related to four named individuals, a specific address, and two specified dates. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains court-filed documents. Section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code provides for required public disclosure of "information that is also contained in a public court record," unless the information is made confidential under the Act or other law. Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(17). The court documents we marked are subject to section 552.022(a)(17). You seek to withhold these documents under section 552.108 of the Government Code, which is a discretionary exception to disclosure that protects a governmental body's interests and may be waived. See id. § 552.108; Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 177 at 3 (1977) (statutory predecessor to section 552.108 subject to waiver). As such, section 552.108 does not make information confidential under the Act. Therefore, the department may not withhold the marked court-filed documents under section 552.108. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure of the court-filed documents, you must release the marked documents pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't

Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The relevant language of section 58.007 reads:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). You state some of the submitted information involves alleged juvenile delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03(a) (defining “delinquent conduct” for the purposes of section 58.007). It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 of the Family Code apply. Therefore, we find the department must withhold the information we have marked in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

We now address your arguments under section 552.108 of the Government Code for the information not subject to section 552.022. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the remaining information pertains to active criminal cases. Based on your representation, we conclude section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable in this instance. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th

<sup>1</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

Section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Such basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-87; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). We note basic information does not include the identifying information of witnesses. See ORD 127. Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1).

In summary, the department must release the court filed documents we have marked pursuant to section 552.022 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. With the exception of the basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Burnett
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

<sup>2</sup>We note basic information includes an arrestee's social security number. Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code permits the department to withhold the social security number of a living person without requesting a decision from this office. Gov't Code § 552.147(b).
