OR2012-15341

Dear Ms. Webb:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 466151.

The City of Missouri City (the "city") received a request for records of denied applications for use of specified facilities during a specified time period, including the name and address of the applicants and the reason for denial.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.130, 552.136, and 552.137 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130. Upon review, we find the city must withhold the motor vehicle record information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

¹You state the city sought and received clarification of the information requested. See Gov't Code § 552.222 (providing that if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding that when a governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification or narrowing of an unclear or over-broad request for public information, the ten-day period to request an attorney general ruling is measured from the date the request is clarified or narrowed).

Section 552.136 of the Government Code states “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.” Gov’t Code § 552.136. Section 552.136(a) defines “access device” as “a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to . . . obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value [or] initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument.” Id. § 552.136(a). We note check numbers are not access device numbers for purposes of section 552.136. Thus, the city must withhold the bank account and routing numbers we have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code. However, you have not demonstrated the remaining information you have marked is confidential under section 552.136 of the Government Code and it may not be withheld on that basis.

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body” unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). Gov’t Code § 552.137(a)-(c). The e-mail addresses at issue are not a type specifically excluded by section 552.137(c) of the Government Code. Accordingly, the city must withhold the e-mail addresses you have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owners of the e-mail addresses have affirmatively consented to their disclosure.

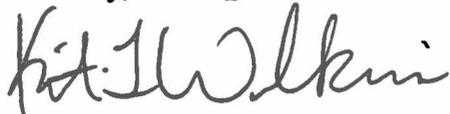

In summary, the city must withhold the motor vehicle record information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code, the bank account and routing numbers we have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code, and the e-mail addresses you have marked under section 552.137 unless the owners consent to their release.² The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

²We note this office issued Open Records Decision No. 684, a previous determination to all governmental bodies, which authorizes the withholding of ten categories of information, including e-mail addresses of members of the public under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision. Section 552.130(c) authorizes a governmental body to redact, without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office, the driver’s license and personal identification information described in subsections 552.130(a)(1) and (a)(3). See Gov’t Code § 552.130(c); see id. § 552.130(d) (entitling requestor to appeal governmental body’s decision to withhold information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to attorney general), .130(e) (requiring governmental body that withholds information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to provide notice to requestor). Section 552.136 authorizes a governmental body to redact the information described in section 552.136(b) without the necessity of seeking an attorney general decision. See Gov’t Code § 552.136(b). If a governmental body redact such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.136(e). See id. § 552.136(d), (e).

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
