

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

January 23, 2013

Mr. Jon Thatcher
Assistant District Attorney
Rockwall County
1111 East Yellowjacket Lane, Suite 201
Rockwall, Texas 75087

OR2013-01295

Dear Mr. Thatcher:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 477736.

Rockwall County (the "county") received a request for the county's last electricity contract or "contracts that ha[ve] been signed and accepted for all your electricity meters." Although the county takes no position as to the release of the submitted information, you state the submitted documents may contain proprietary information of third parties. Accordingly, you notified the Texas General Land Office (the "GLO") and Reliant Energy Retail Services, L.L.C. of the request for information and of their right to submit arguments to this office as to why the information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released). We have received correspondence from the GLO. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

The GLO raises section 552.104 of the Government Code for the submitted information. Section 552.104 excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Id. § 552.104(a). This exception protects a governmental body's interests in connection with competitive bidding and in certain other competitive situations. See Open Records Decision No. 593 (1991) (construing statutory predecessor). This office has held that a governmental body may seek protection as a competitor in the marketplace under section 552.104 and avail itself of the "competitive advantage" aspect of this exception if it can satisfy two criteria. See id. First, the governmental body must demonstrate that it has specific marketplace interests. See id. at 3. Second, the governmental body must demonstrate a specific threat of actual or potential harm to its interests in a particular competitive situation. See id. at 5. Thus, the question of whether the release of particular information will harm a governmental body's legitimate interests as a competitor in a marketplace depends on the sufficiency of the governmental body's demonstration of the prospect of specific harm to its marketplace interests in a particular competitive situation. See id. at 10. A general allegation of a remote possibility of harm is not sufficient. See Open Records Decision No. 514 at 2 (1988).

The GLO asserts it has specific marketplace interests in the information at issue because the GLO is authorized by statute to "sell or otherwise convey power or natural gas generated from royalties taken in kind[.]" Tex. Util. Code § 35.102. The GLO advises that under that authority, it has created the State Power Program, through which it bids on contracts for the right to sell electrical energy to public retail customers. The GLO states it competes with other private companies for the awards of these contracts. Based on these representations, we find the GLO has demonstrated it has specific marketplace interests and may be considered a "competitor" for purposes of section 552.104. See ORD 593.

The GLO contends the release of the responsive information would harm its marketplace interests because this information details the services and the prices the GLO charges for such services in order to provide the county with its electrical needs. The GLO further asserts that, if its competitors had access to this information, they would "be able to use the GLO's methods of delivery of electrical services and its pricing formula for such services as their own." Thus, the GLO contends that allowing competitors access to the submitted information will undermine its ability to compete in this marketplace. Based on the GLO's representations and arguments, we conclude the GLO has shown that release of the submitted information would cause specific harm to the GLO's marketplace interests. See ORD 593. We therefore conclude the county may withhold the submitted information under section 552.104 of the Government Code.¹

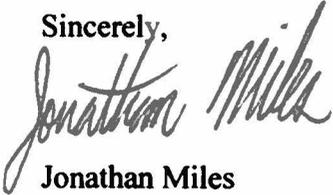

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
