Ms. Michelle M. Kretz
Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street, 3rd Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2013-01442

Dear Ms. Kretz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 479078 (PIR No. W022155).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for a police report pertaining to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. See id. at 681-82. The types of information considered intimate or embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. See id. at 683. Generally, only highly intimate information that implicates the privacy of an individual is withheld. However, in certain instances, where it is demonstrated that the requestor knows the identity of the individual involved, as well as the nature of certain incidents, the entire report must be withheld to protect the individual's privacy. In this instance, although you seek to withhold the submitted report in its entirety, you have not demonstrated, nor does it otherwise appear, this is a situation in which the report must be withheld in its entirety on the basis of common-law privacy. However, upon review, we find the information you have marked, as well as the additional information we have marked, is highly intimate or embarrassing and of no legitimate public interest. Accordingly, the city must withhold the information you and we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information that relates to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1). You state the city has redacted some motor vehicle record information as permitted by section 552.130(c).<sup>1</sup> In addition, the city must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.130.

In summary, the city must withhold the information you and we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The city must withhold the additional information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The city must release the remaining information.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) authorizes a governmental body to redact, without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office, the motor vehicle record information described in section 552.130(a)(1). See Gov't Code § 552.130(c); see also id. § 552.130(d)-(e) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general and governmental body withholding information pursuant to section 552.130(c) must provide certain notice to requestor).

<sup>2</sup>We note the information being released contains the requestor's driver's license information and social security number, to which the requestor has a right of access under section 552.023 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code §§ 552.023(a), .130; Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987). As previously noted, section 552.130(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact information protected by section 552.130(a)(1) without the necessity of requesting a decision under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e). Additionally, section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. See id. § 552.147(b). Thus, if the city receives another request for this same information from a person who does not have such a right of access, sections 552.130(c) and 552.147(b) authorize the city to redact the requestor's driver's license information and social security number, respectively.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
