Re: Request for the incident report from Case #12-12-0178

Dear Ms. Ingram:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 482376.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold the submitted information. However, pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code, section 552.108 does not except basic information from public disclosure. You state the information you highlighted in pink is basic information. However, the information you marked does not include a detailed description of the offense, which is also considered to be basic information. Thus, you must release the information you highlighted in pink and a detailed description of the offense.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
