

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 4, 2013

Ms. Michelle T. Rangel
Assistant County Attorney
Fort Bend County
301 Jackson Street, Suite 728
Richmond, Texas 77469

OR2013-05337

Dear Ms. Rangel:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 482993.

The Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for all documents related to two specified cases involving the investigation of the death of a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses other laws that make information confidential, such as section 48.101 of the Human Resources Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) The following information is confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]:

<sup>1</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of information submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

- (1) a report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation made under this chapter;
- (2) the identity of the person making the report; and
- (3) except as provided by this section, all files, reports, records, communications, and working papers used or developed in an investigation made under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(b) Confidential information may be disclosed only for a purpose consistent with this chapter and as provided by [the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (the "DFPS")] or investigating state agency rule and applicable federal law.

Hum. Res. Code § 48.101(a)-(b). Section 48.051 of the Human Resources Code provides "a person having cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in the state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation" shall report certain prescribed information to the DFPS or another appropriate state agency.<sup>2</sup> See id. § 48.051(a). The only entities authorized to conduct an investigation under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code are DFPS and certain other state agencies, depending on the circumstances surrounding the incident. See id. §§ 48.151, .152, .252, .301. Thus, reports made to a police department or sheriff's office generally are not subject to section 48.101. You contend some of the submitted information is confidential under section 48.101. We note, however, the submitted reports reflect they were created by the sheriff's office. Although you state referrals were made to Adult Protective Services ("APS") of the DFPS, you have not demonstrated the information at issue was used or developed in an investigation by APS under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code. See id. § 48.101(a)(3). Thus, you have failed to demonstrate the information at issue pertains to investigations conducted by an entity authorized to conduct such an investigation under chapter 48. Consequently, the sheriff's office may not withhold any of the information at issue under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 48.101.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information pertains to pending criminal investigations and prosecutions. Based on your representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, we note section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Therefore, with the exception of basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>3</sup>
