

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 30, 2013

Mr. Stephen A. Cumbie
Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2013-08996

Dear Mr. Cumbie:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 488822 (PIR No. W024318).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for all documents in a specified file. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

You state the submitted information was compiled by the city's Human Relations Unit (the "unit") in the course of its investigation of an employment discrimination claim filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code. See Labor Code § 21.201 (person claiming to be aggrieved by unlawful employment practice or person's agent may file complaint with Texas Workforce Commission ("TWC")). You state the unit was created under chapter 21 of the Labor Code. See id. § 21.152 (providing for creation of local commissions). You also explain, pursuant to chapter 21, both the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the TWC have deferred jurisdiction to hear complaints to the unit. See id. § 21.154 (authorizing deferral of jurisdiction to local commissions); see also 40 T.A.C. § 819.76 (authorizing workshare agreements between the TWC and local commissions). Thus, under section 21.152 of the Labor Code, the unit is a local agency authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of employment discrimination. See Labor Code §§ 21.154 (authorizing local commission to which complaint is referred or jurisdiction is deferred to receive, investigate, conciliate, or rule on complaint), .204 (relating to investigation of complaints by the TWC).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information that other statutes make confidential. Section 21.304 of the Labor Code, which relates to public release of information obtained by the TWC, provides as follows:

An officer or employee of the [TWC] may not disclose to the public information obtained by the [TWC] under Section 21.204 except as necessary to the conduct of a proceeding under this chapter.

Labor Code § 21.304. The submitted information pertains to a complaint of unlawful employment discrimination. We note the requestor is an attorney representing a party to the complaint filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code. Section 21.305 of the Labor Code concerns the release of records to a party to a complaint filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code and provides as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (c), the [TWC] shall adopt rules allowing a party to a complaint filed under Section 21.201 reasonable access to [TWC] records relating to the complaint.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), unless the complaint is resolved through a voluntary settlement or conciliation, on the written request of a party the executive director shall allow the party access to the [TWC] records:

(1) after the final action of the [TWC]; or

(2) if a civil action relating to the complaint is filed in federal court alleging a violation of federal law.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 552.023, Government Code, the following information is not considered public information for the purposes of Chapter 552, Government Code, and may not be disclosed to a party to a complaint filed under Section 21.201:

(1) identifying information of persons other than the parties and witnesses to the complaint;

(2) identifying information about confidential witnesses, including any confidential statement given by the witness;

(3) sensitive medical information about the charging party or a witness to the complaint that is:

(A) provided by a person other than the person requesting the information; and

(B) not relevant to issues raised in the complaint, including information that identifies injuries, impairments, pregnancies, disabilities, or other medical conditions that are not obviously apparent or visible;

(4) identifying information about a person other than the charging party that is found in sensitive medical information regardless of whether the information is relevant to the complaint;

(5) nonsensitive medical information that is relevant to the complaint if the disclosure would result in an invasion of personal privacy, unless the information is generally known or has been previously reported to the public;

(6) identifying information about other respondents or employers not a party to the complaint;

(7) information relating to settlement offers or conciliation agreements received from one party that was not conveyed to the other and information contained in a separate alternative dispute resolution file prepared for mediation purposes; and

(8) identifying information about a person on whose behalf a complaint was filed if the person has requested that the person's identity as a complaining party remain confidential.

(d) In this section, "identifying information" has the meaning assigned by Section 32.51, Penal Code.

Labor Code § 21.305. In this instance, the information at issue is related to an investigation of a complaint filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code. You do not indicate the complaint was resolved through a voluntary settlement or conciliation agreement. Moreover, the request reflects the complainant has filed a civil action in federal court, and we understand the suit alleges a violation of federal law. The requestor states that he represents the defendant in the pending litigation. Thus, we find that the requestor generally has a right of access to the records relating to the complaint under section 21.305 of the Labor Code. However, we note subsection 21.305(c) identifies eight categories of information not considered public information for the purposes of chapter 552 and which may not be disclosed to a party to a complaint filed under section 21.201. In this instance, you state the information at issue relates to settlement offers made between the charging party and a representative of the unit. Pursuant to section 21.305, the requestor generally has a right of access to the city's records relating to the complaint. However, the city must withhold any information subject to subsection (c) under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.305(a) of the Labor Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Cynthia G. Tynan
