OR2014-01252

Dear Ms. Henry:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 511780 (Plano ORR# NABZ102213).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to delinquent conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007. Fam. Code § 58.007(c). The relevant language of section 58.007 reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

(j) Before a child or a child's parent or guardian may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (e), the custodian of the record or file shall redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not the child[.]

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e), (j)(1). For purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). The submitted information involves juvenile delinquent conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining "delinquent conduct" for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). Thus, this information is generally confidential under section 58.007(c). We note the requestor is one of the juvenile suspects listed in the report. Therefore, the requestor has a right to inspect his own juvenile law enforcement records pursuant to section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. See id. § 58.007(e). Section 58.007(j)(1) provides, however, that any personally identifiable information concerning other juvenile suspects, offenders, victims, or witnesses must be redacted. See id. § 58.007(j)(1). For purposes of section 58.007(j), we conclude a juvenile victim or witness is a person who is under eighteen years of age. Thus, the department must withhold the information identifying other juvenile suspects and juvenile witnesses, which we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 58.007(j)(1). We note we are unable to determine whether two witnesses listed in the submitted information were under eighteen years of age at the time of the incident at issue. Thus, to the extent these witnesses were juveniles at the time of the incident at issue, the department must also withhold their identifying information, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code. To the extent these individuals were not juveniles at the time of the incident at issue, the department may not withhold their identifying information on that basis. Further, we find none of the remaining information identifies other juvenile suspects, offenders, victims, or witnesses. Thus, the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.101 in conjunction with 58.007(j)(1). As you raise no further exceptions, the remaining information must be released.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
