

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 17, 2014

Ms. Marisela Olivas
Regional Attorney
Texas Health and Human Services Commission Region 01
6302 Iola Avenue
Lubbock, Texas 79424

OR2014-06434

Dear Ms. Olivas:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 519999.

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (the "commission") received a request for all documents related to the Medicaid eligibility of two named individuals during a certain period. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses sections 12.003 and 21.012 of the Human Resources Code. Section 12.003 provides in part:

(a) Except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the [commission's] assistance programs, it is an offense for a person to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of the names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving assistance if the information is directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the [commission] or acquired by employees of the [commission] in the performance of their official duties.

Hum. Res. Code § 12.003(a); see also id. § 21.012 (requiring provision of safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants for or recipients of assistance programs to purposes directly connected with administration of programs). The term “assistance” in sections 12.003 and 21.012 includes “all forms of assistance and services for needy persons authorized by Subtitle C” of title 2 of the Human Resources Code. Id. § 11.001(4); see also id. § 31.001 et seq. (Hum. Res. Code title 2, subtitle C, Assistance Programs).

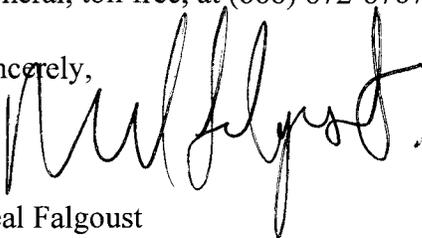

In Open Records Decision No. 584 (1991), this office concluded “[t]he inclusion of the words ‘or any information’ juxtaposed with the prohibition on disclosure of the names of [the commission’s] clients clearly expresses a legislative intent to encompass the broadest range of individual client information, and not merely the clients’ names and addresses.” Open Records Decision No. 584 at 3 (1991). Consequently, it is the specific information pertaining to individual clients, and not merely the clients’ identities, that is made confidential under section 12.003. See also 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(7) (state plan for medical assistance must provide safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants and recipients to purposes directly connected with administration of plan); 42 C.F.R. §§ 431.300 et seq.; Open Records Decision No. 166 (1977).

You state the submitted information consists of records related to applications for Medicaid, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, and the Temporary Aid for Needy Families program, all of which are programs administered by the commission. You state the release of this information would not be for purposes directly connected with the administration of an assistance program. Based on your representations and our review, we conclude the commission must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
