OR2014-11433

Dear Ms. Kostbar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 527914 (HCAD Reference No. 14-1886B).

The Harris County Appraisal District (the "district") received a request for the iFile number for a specified account. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.136 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.136 of the Government Code states "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential." Gov't Code § 552.136(b). Section 552.136(a) defines "access device" as "a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to . . . obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value [or] initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument."

<sup>1</sup>You acknowledge, and we agree, the district did not comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting this decision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(b), (e). However, because the district's claim under section 552.136 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason for non-disclosure under section 552.302, we will address your arguments under that exception. See Open Records Decision No. 150 at 2 (1977).

Id. § 552.136(a). You represent the requested iFile number can be used to access confidential property information that is valuable to property owners and third party professionals involved in the protests of property tax appraisals. Based on your representations and our review, we agree the iFile number at issue is an access device number for purposes of section 552.136(a). Accordingly, the district must generally withhold the iFile number, which you have marked, under section 552.136(b) of the Government Code. However, we note the requestor may be the authorized representative of the owner of the requested iFile number. Thus, this requestor may have a right of access to the requested information that would otherwise be confidential under section 552.136. See id. § 552.023(a) (“[a] person or a person’s authorized representative has a special right of access, beyond the right of the general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to the person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person’s privacy interests”); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates or person’s authorized representative on grounds that information is considered confidential by privacy principles). Accordingly, we must rule conditionally. If the requestor is the authorized representative of the owner of the requested iFile number, the district may not withhold the iFile number at issue from this requestor under section 552.136 and it must be released pursuant to section 552.023 of the Government Code. If the requestor is not the authorized representative of the owner of the requested iFile number, you must withhold the requested iFile number under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
